ROBERT C. McNAIR

Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Robert C. McNair, a leading businessman, sportsman and philanthropist in the city of Houston for more than 40 years, is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Houston Texans. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world, with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts.

McNair serves as chairman and chief executive officer of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in three cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. McNair owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd., and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' private and public equity investments, and is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to McNair, returning football to the city of Houston in the year 2002 and Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004.

The Houston Texans finished the 2008 campaign with their second consecutive 8-8 season. The 16 wins over two seasons are the most in team history. The Texans finished the season with four wins in the month of December to set a team record for wins in a month. Houston won five of its last six games which included the team's first four-game winning streak. Houston began the season with three consecutive road games, becoming the first team since 2001 to start the home portion of their season in October. The Texans started the year 0-4, but managed to finish 8-4 over the last 12 weeks becoming the 10th team in NFL history to start 0-4 or worse and finish .500 or better.

McNair is actively involved in NFL affairs serving as chairman of the Investment Committee, and is a member of the Audit, Finance, Stadium and Expansion committees.

McNair is chairman emeritus of the board of directors of The Texas Bowl, Inc. which brought the inaugural Texas Bowl game to Reliant Stadium on December 28, 2006. In 2007 TCU and the University of Houston played in front of 62,097 fans, the largest bowl crowd ever at Reliant Stadium and the third-largest bowl crowd in Houston's history. The 2008 Texas Bowl featured the home-town favorite Rice Owls versus the Western Michigan Broncos. The Owls came away with their first bowl victory in 50 years in front of 58,880 fans which made the Texas Bowl the seventh largest non-BCS bowl game in the country. Annual Texas Bowl games feature teams from the Big 12 and Conference USA.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,947-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside is home to more than 250 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. Since its inception in 1994, Stonerside has won 72 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also has finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby. Stonerside also bred the 2008 winner of the Breeder's Cup Classic, Ravens Pass; and Midshipman, the winner of the 2008 Breeder's Cup Juvenile. In October 2008 McNair sold Stonerside Farm and Racing Stable to Sheik Mohammed, the ruler of Dubai.

McNair is Chairman of the McNair Foundation and the Houston Texans Foundation. The McNair Foundation was honored as the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and in November 2004, the Foundation was honored by the Houston Independent School District Partnership with a Hall of Fame Award. In May 2008 Young Audiences of Houston honored McNair Foundation with its Community Impact Award.

The McNairs have given generously to a wide array of charitable, scientific, literary, educational and religious organizations through the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation. Major support has been given to scholarship programs at Baylor College of Medicine's MD/PhD Program, the University of South Carolina, Columbia College, Austin College, Virginia Tech and Houston Community College. Educational initiatives supported include the HISD Fine Arts Program, Project GRAD, Teach for America, Neuhaus Education Center and local schools. Contributions to the community include the McNair Asian Elephant Habitat at the Houston Zoo, the jogging trail at Discovery Green, Equestrian Center for the San Jacinto Girl Scouts, McNair Cub Scout Adventure World, the Computer Training Center Room for the United Way and sponsorship of community outreach programs for the Houston Symphony and Houston Grand Opera. The McNairs turned their philanthropic focus to medical research in 2007 and gave a transformational gift to Baylor College of Medicine to fund the McNair Scholars Program which will recruit top physicians/scientists in the fields of juvenile diabetes, breast and pancreatic cancer and the neurosciences. Additional McNair Scholars Programs were established at M.D. Anderson, Menninger Clinic, Texas Children's Hospital and Texas Heart Institute.

McNair is the recipient of many awards, including the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award, the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes President & Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award. In June 2005, Rice University announced that the newest building on the campus, the 167,000-square-foot home of the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, had been officially named Janice and Robert McNair Hall by the Rice Board of Trustees. In January 2006, the McNairs were the recipients of the Texas Association of Partners in Education Award for the Texas Outstanding Sports Partnership. In October 2007, the Baylor College of Medicine bestowed their first Pink Ribbon Hero Award for Ambassadorship on the McNairs for their support of past Pink Ribbon Houses and for their commitment to the fight against cancer. RICK SMITH

General Manager

14th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Rick Smith enters his fourth season as Texans general manger after being named to the post on June 5, 2006. The Texans have accumulated 22 wins over the three seasons since 2006, giving him the most wins for a general manager in Texans history. Houston has posted 16 wins over the last two seasons, which ranks fifth-most among AFC teams.

As general manager, Smith oversees all aspects of football operations, salary cap management and budgeting. He works closely with the coaching and scouting staffs to build the club roster via free agency as well as overseeing the annual college draft.

Smith has assembled a front office staff that has the Texans pointed towards sustained success in the NFL. Smith has established himself as a prominent voice around the league in his three years at the helm with the Texans. Smith was honored with the Tank Younger Award in 2008 presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office. Smith was an original member of the General Managers Advisory Committee that provides advice and other feedback to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, expansion of technology and other ways to improve the game before being appointed to the NFL's prestigious eight-man Competition Committee by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on December 5, 2008.

In 2008 the Texans had to overcome the devastation of Hurricane Ike, which ravaged the Gulf Coast region during Week 2 of the NFL season. Smith and his staff were forced to keep the Texans moving forward during this difficult time, adjusting schedules, stadium repairs and changing travel plans during the regular season. Despite the 0-4 start the Texans earned their second consecutive 8-8 seasons by winning eight of their final 12 games. The Texans became the tenth team in NFL history to start a season 0-4 and finish at .500 or better.

Smith has assembled a team that has closed the season by winning seven out of nine games in the month of December over the last two seasons, the fourth-most in the NFL. In his first big move as general manager Smith acquired QB Matt Schaub via trade from the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007 offseason. Schaub has paid off by posting a 90.3 QB rating and ranks fourth in the NFL with a 66.2 completion percentage since arriving in Houston. Schaub led the NFL in passing yards in December in 2008 with 1,281 yards and had a 95.2 QB rating while guiding Houston to a 4-1 record in December. Houston's four wins were the most wins in team history in a month.

Ever since his arrival, Smith's main philosophy has been to build through the draft. The Texans drafted DT Amobi Okoye in the first round of Smith's initial draft as general manager in 2007. Okoye started 14 games as a rookie and was named the NFL's defensive rookie of the month in September 2007 when he set a Texans record for sacks in a month with four. During his career, Okoye has appeared in 30 games with 26 starts. In the third round that year, the Texans drafted WR Jacoby Jones who is the only player in Texans history to return multiple punts for touchdowns in a single season, returning a pair for scores in 2008. CB Fred Bennett, the team's fourth round selection in 2007, leads the team with five interceptions over the past two seasons.

Smith executed a trade to move back eight spots in the first round of the 2008 draft to select LT Duane Brown with the 26th pick and picked up additional third and sixth round picks where Houston found value. Brown became the first rookie to start all 16 games on the Texans offensive line since G Chester Pitts accomplished the feat in 2002. With the additional pick in the third round, Smith selected RB Steve Slaton, who re-wrote the Texans rushing records. He became the first Texan to lead all rookies in rushing by accumulating 1,282 yards, became the first to rush for 100-yards in three consecutive games and led the AFC in yards from scrimmage with 1,659. Slaton led the NFL with 687 yards from scrimmage in December en route to being named the NFL Rookie of the Month. Slaton and Okoye are the only teammates drafted over the last two years to be awarded with the honor.

This offseason, the Texans acquired DE Antonio Smith from the NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals to balance the Texans defensive front four. Last year, the 27-year-old Smith played in all 16 games and started 10 for the NFC Champion Cardinals and recorded 31 tackles and 3.5 sacks. Smith started three of the Cardinals' four playoff games, including Super Bowl XLII, and notched eight tackles (seven solos), a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

The Texans added an additional fourth round draft pick when they dealt QB Sage Rosenfels to the Minnesota Vikings. Houston signed QB Dan Orlovsky as their primary backup from the Detroit Lions. Orlovsky spent the first four seasons of his career with the Detroit Lions. He has completed 150-of-272 career pass attempts for 1,679 yards with eight touchdowns and eight interceptions. He has appeared in 12 games with seven starts in his career.

In the 2009 Draft, Smith greatly improved the Texans defense using the team's first two selections on LB Brian Cushing and DE Connor Barwin. Cushing, the team's first-round selection, was a consensus first team All-American from USC. He started 38 of 44 games for the Trojans, finishing his career with 178 tackles (101 solos) that included 8.5 quarterback sacks for minus-57 yards, 27.0 stops for losses totaling 106 yards and two pressures, intercepted one pass, deflected 12 others and blocked two punts.

Barwin was selected in the second round and is a versatile athlete who made a successful transition to defensive end from tight end during his senior year at Cincinnati. He recorded 53 tackles (27 solos) and led the team and Big East while ranking tied for seventh in the nation with 12.0 sacks for minus 74-yards. His 12.0 sacks rank third on the school season-record list.

In his former role with the Broncos, Smith was responsible for evaluating players from around the NFL, as well as those in NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, the Arena Football League and other professional leagues. He also played a central role in the club's preparation for the college draft and was one of the Broncos' primary negotiators for player contracts.

With Smith heading the pro personnel department, the Broncos posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team over that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Not surprisingly, Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club in NFL history over a three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He left Purdue in February to accept a coaching position at TCU but spent just one month at the school before being hired by the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career with the Boilermakers shortly after his graduation, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator as a grad assistant. After serving as the team's tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24.

Smith was a starter at strong safety and defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith also is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith and his wife, Tiffany, live in Houston with son Robert LaMar and daughter Avery Jordan.

JAMEY ROOTES

President

10th NFL Season • 10th with Texans

Jamey Rootes serves as president of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club.

Since joining the Texans, Rootes has overseen the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful ticket and suite sales campaigns, led the creation and launch of the team's identity, and developed the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

Under Rootes' leadership the Texans have earned many distinctions, including the American Marketing Association's "Crystal Award" for the best overall marketing campaign. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their book entitled "Satisfaction." Also, the Texans were recognized with Sports Business Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major league professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. In 2003, the Texans were also named by Sports Business Journal as the best sports start-up over a five-year period. In 2008, the Texans extended their sell-out streak to 70 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on gameday. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications.

Rootes was selected twice by Sports Business Journal as a member of their distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. Rootes maintains an active role in the community and serves on a number of boards, including the Greater Houston Partnership, the United Way of Greater Houston, the Houston Food Bank and the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Prior to joining the Houston Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as president and general manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in America. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year and led to the development of numerous soccer-specific stadiums across the United States over the past decade.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and served as Student Body President. While earning an MBA at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports. Rootes lives in West University with his wife, Melissa, and their children, Christopher and Caroline.

GARY KUBIAK

Head Coach

16th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Gary Kubiak returned to his hometown of Houston on January 26, 2006, becoming the second head coach in the history of the Houston Texans.

In just three seasons at the helm, Kubiak has become the winningest head coach in Texans history with 22 career victories, including the two best seasons in team history. One of Kubiak's primary goals upon arriving in Houston was to create a home field advantage at Reliant Stadium, and he has made great strides in that direction. The Texans have posted a 16-8 home record since 2006, including 6-2 marks in each of the last two seasons.

The 2008 Texans matched their record from the year before, going 8-8 for a second straight year despite an 0-4 start in the aftermath of Hurricane Ike, which devastated much of Houston and southeast Texas. Houston became just the tenth team in NFL history to start a year 0-4 and finish at or above .500. Houston was one of 11 teams to go 8-4 or better over the last 12 games and nine of those teams were in the playoffs. The offense enjoyed its most productive season, ranking third in the NFL and setting a franchise record with 6,113 total yards.

Year two for Kubiak saw the team achieve the best record in franchise history, finishing 8-8. The Texans won three of their last four and five of their last seven to finish the season at .500. Closing the season strong has become a hallmark of Kubiak's teams. In three seasons in Houston, the Texans are a combined 10-5 in the month of December. Another point of emphasis under Kubiak has been developing a true home field advantage, and the team is well on its way to accomplishing that mission. After going 4-4 at Reliant Stadium in 2006, which was the best home mark at the time, Kubiak's troops posted a 6-2 mark at home in 2007.

In his rookie season, he tripled the team's win total of the previous year, guiding the club to a 6-10 record. The six victories included wins in three of the last five games of the season and the franchise's first ever win over Indianapolis. Six wins were the second-most in franchise history. All six wins came versus AFC opponents, giving the Texans their most wins over conference foes in team annals.

Kubiak came to Houston with the reputation of being an offensive mastermind and he has lived up to that billing in his first two years with the team. In 48 games under Kubiak, Houston has averaged 331.6 yards per game compared to an average 266.5 yards per game from 2002-05. The scoring average under Kubiak has also risen nearly five points versus prior to his arrival.

The most dramatic improvement has been made by the offensive line. After giving up a league-worst 68 sacks in 2005, the line has allowed an average of 32.3 per year under Kubiak. This has allowed the passing game to flourish, averaging over 60 yards per game better than in the franchise's first four years. The line also allowed the Texans rushing attack to average 106.6 yards per game over the last three years.

Kubiak has made a habit of surrounding himself with great coaches throughout his tenure in Houston. One of his first hires in 2006 was former Green Bay head coach Mike Sherman, who served as the assistant head coach/offense and then offensive coordinator in Kubiak's first two seasons. In 2008, Kubiak bolstered his staff with two of the brightest minds in football, hiring venerable offensive line guru Alex Gibbs as the assistant head coach/offense and 1995 NFL Coach of the Year Ray Rhodes as the assistant defensive backs coach.

As head coach, Kubiak has also been responsible for the performance of the defense. Stocked with young talent such as the All-Pro combo of linebacker DeMeco Ryans and defensive end Mario Williams plus franchise cornerback Dunta Robinson, the defense is poised to become one of the league's best under new defensive coordinator Frank Bush. Bush advocates an aggressive, attacking philosophy which promises to increase the number of turnovers created.

Williams and Ryans were the first two draft picks of the Kubiak era, and they set the tone for what is quickly becoming an excellent track record on draft day. Following the lead of Ryans and Williams, tight end Owen Daniels gave the Texans a league-best three Pro Bowlers from the 2006 draft class. Right tackle Eric Winston has also emerged as a starter from that class. The 2006 class has started a total of 192 combined games for the Texans in their first three seasons.

The Texans' 2007 draft class was led by defensive tackle Amobi Okoye, the youngest first-round draft pick in NFL history, and cornerback Fred Bennett, who led the team in interceptions as a rookie. In 2008, first-round pick Duane Brown started all 16 games at left tackle, while running back Steve Slaton won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards.

Kubiak spent 20 of the previous 23 years in the Denver area, where he earned a reputation as a brilliant offensive mastermind. He played for the Broncos from 1983-91 as the backup for Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway. Kubiak played in 119 games during his career and tossed 14 touchdowns in that span. During his time as a player in the Mile High City, he was a part of three teams that reached the Super Bowl.

Kubiak began his coaching career in 1992-93 as the running backs coach at his alma mater Texas A&M. Under Kubiak's watchful eye, running back Greg Hill was named second team All-America his junior year. Hill was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 1994 draft.

Kubiak started his NFL coaching career with the San Francisco 49ers in 1994. As quarterbacks coach, he guided Hall of Famer Steve Young to his best season as a pro. Young was named the NFL MVP for the second time in his career.

Under Kubiak's tutelage, Young had a career high 70.3 completion percentage. He threw 35 touchdowns, passed for 3,969 yards and set an NFL record with a 112.8 passer rating, a mark that would stand for 10 seasons. Young captured Super Bowl XXIX MVP honors by tossing a record six touchdowns in San Francisco's 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers.

In the spring of 1995, Kubiak returned to the Broncos as offensive coordinator, where he would steer Denver to the organization's best numbers in team history and help lead the team to seven postseason trips and two Super Bowl titles in 11 seasons.

Kubiak began his tenure in Denver as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach to his former teammate, Elway. Kubiak made an immediate impact as Elway threw for 3,970 yards, the second-best mark of his Hall of Fame career. Elway increased his touchdown passes from 16 in 1994 to 26 in 1995. During the final four years of his career (1995-98), Elway tossed 101 touchdown passes, second only to Brett Favre in that span.

Kubiak's offense featured one of the best tight ends in NFL history. Shannon Sharpe, the NFL's leader among tights ends in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns, spent seven years under Kubiak. Sharpe averaged 61 receptions and had the most yards receiving with 1,107 yards in 1997.

Kubiak's offenses have always been based on balance. The Broncos' running game was focused around a strong system instead of an individual. Broncos runners went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 10 of 11 seasons under Kubiak. Denver saw five different runners rush for more than 1,000 yards, more than any team in the NFL over that time frame.

Kubiak turned to Terrell Davis to tote the ball as the Broncos won back-to-back Super Bowls in the late '90s. In 1997, Davis became only the fourth running back in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards. During the 1997-98 seasons, he rushed for 3,758 yards, most of any running back in back-to-back campaigns between 1995-2005. Davis' 2,008 rushing yards are the fourth most in NFL history. He won AP Offensive Player of the Year honors in 1996 and 1998.

Following Elway's retirement, Kubiak turned his offense over to second-year quarterback Brian Griese, who threw for 3,032 yards in his first season as the Broncos' starter. In the 2000 season, Griese guided the Broncos' offense to rank second in the NFL in points scored and total offense. He was named to the Pro Bowl that season.

That same season Mike Anderson rushed for 1,487 yards, a Bronco record for a rookie. Anderson set the NFL single-game rookie rushing record with 251 yards against the New Orleans Saints. That year, Kubiak's receivers, Ed McCaffrey (101) and Rod Smith (100), became just the second pair of teammates in NFL history to grab at least 100 receptions.

In 2002, the Broncos drafted running back Clinton Portis in the second round. In his rookie season, Portis rushed for 1,508 yards, breaking Anderson's rookie mark, and was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Broncos' rushing attack averaged 141.6 yards per game, which ranked second in the AFC. The offense totaled 380.6 yards per game, which was third in the NFL.

Kubiak relinquished his quarterbacks coach title in 2003, turning the duties over to Pat McPherson. That offseason, Denver signed quarterback Jake Plummer from the Arizona Cardinals and Plummer was immediately transformed. Despite missing five games his first season in Denver, Plummer threw for more touchdowns (15) than interceptions (seven) for the second time in his career. The 2004 season saw Plummer throw for 4,089 yards, most in Broncos history. He also tossed 27 touchdown passes, tying Elway's 1997 club record.

Plummer stayed on his feet in Kubiak's offense. After being sacked an average of 36 times per season in Arizona, Plummer was sacked an average of 17 times per year in Denver. Every season in Kubiak's system, Plummer threw more touchdowns than interceptions and led the Broncos to the playoffs from 2003-05.

In 2005, Kubiak's offense ranked fifth in the NFL with 5,766 total yards. His rushing attack was second in the league, averaging 158.7 yards per game. The Broncos were led by Anderson's 1,014 yards on the ground and Tatum Bell's 921 yards. Denver finished 2005 with a 13-3 record, winning their division for the first time since 1998, the last time they appeared in the Super Bowl.

In his 11 years as offensive coordinator, Kubiak's Broncos amassed 66,501 total yards and 465 touchdowns, most in the NFL in that span. He has coached 14 different Broncos that made the Pro Bowl. Denver's rushing attack has totaled 25,022 yards, most in the NFL over the last 11 seasons.

Kubiak's return to Houston is a return to his roots. He starred at St. Pius High School, where he was an all-state selection, passing for 6,190 yards during his high school career. He was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame in 1999.

Kubiak attended Texas A&M, where he was selected All-Southwest Conference in 1982. He led the conference in attempts (324), completions (181), percentage (55.9), yardage (1,948), touchdowns (19), and total offense (1,885) as a senior. He set the SWC touchdown record with six against Rice during his junior season. He received his degree in Physical Education before being drafted by the Broncos in the eighth round (197th overall) in the 1983 draft.

Kubiak, born in Houston, is married to Rhonda. The couple has three sons Klint, Klay, and Klein. Klint currently is a senior defensive back and Klay is a sophomore quarterback at Colorado State, while Klein is a freshman wide receiver at Rice.

ALEX GIBBS

Assistant Head Coach/Offense
25th NFL Season • 2nd with Texans

Alex Gibbs enters his second season as the Houston Texans assistant head coach/offense. He was hired by the Texans on January 9, 2008.

In his first season with the Texans, Gibbs had a profound influence on the offense in general and the offensive line in particular. Houston's offense ranked third in the NFL, gaining a franchise-record 6,113 total yards. The line helped rookie running back Steve Slaton set a franchise record with 1,282 rushing yards, and Texans quarterbacks combined to throw for a team-record 4,474 yards while being sacked just 32 times.

Before joining the staff in Houston, he served as the assistant head coach/offensive line, as well as consultant, with the Atlanta Falcons from 2004-06. In 2004 the Falcons led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history. They rushed for a team-record 2,672 yards, the third-highest rushing yardage total in the NFL since 1990.

During the three seasons with Gibbs on staff in Atlanta, the team led the NFL in rushing with 8,157 yards. Atlanta was the only team over that three-year period to record a rushing average above five yards at 5.1.

Gibbs worked with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak, who served as the offensive coordinator in Denver, from 1995-03. During their time together, the Broncos led the NFL in rushing with 20,150 yards. Denver finished second in total offense with 54,167 yards during their nine seasons together.

He spent 13 combined seasons (1984-1987 and 1995-2003) mentoring the offensive line with the Broncos, where he established several franchise records. He played an essential role with the Broncos during their back-to-back Super Bowl wins in the late 90s. The offensive line set numerous franchise records during his second tenure with Denver, including most total yards (6,554 in 2000), most first downs (383 in 2000), most rushing yards (2,468 in 1998) and most rushing touchdowns (32 in 1998).

From 1995-2000, Gibbs' offensive lines did not allow more than 35 sacks in a season. And during that span center Tom Nalen went to four consecutive Pro Bowls.

In 1998, three Broncos offensive linemen were nominated to the Super Bowl for their role in winning their second consecutive Pro Bowl and blocking for NFL MVP Terrell Davis, who rushed for over 2,000 yards.

His NFL career began with the Denver Broncos in 1984 and he helped the team make two straight Super Bowl appearances in 1986 and 1987. He continued on to coach in Kansas City, where he helped the Chiefs drop their sack total substantially from 48 in 1992 to 19 in 1994.

During his tenure with the Indianapolis Colts (1992) he experienced similar success and also helped the San Diego Chargers (1990-1991) to the second-best rush offense in the league in 1991. With the Los Angeles Raiders (1988-1989) he coached guard Steve Wisniewski, who would earn eight trips to the Pro Bowl in his career.

Prior to his NFL experience, Gibbs spent 15 seasons as a college coach. He began in 1969 with Duke University as the defensive backs coach. He continued on to coach defensive backs at the University of Kentucky (1971-1972) and West Virginia University (1973-1974). He began coaching offensive lines at Ohio State (1975-1978), where he also served as offensive coordinator, and on to Auburn (1979-1981) and Georgia (1982-1983), before starting his NFL career.

Gibbs spent his playing days at Davidson College as a running back and defensive back. He earned his master's degree from North Carolina in European history. He continued on to earn his E.D.D. from Auburn University.

Born in Morgantown, North Carolina, Gibbs has a daughter and four sons. His wife's name is Trina.

BILL KOLLAR

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

20th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

The Houston Texans hired Bill Kollar as assistant head coach/defensive line on January 20, 2009, after he spent the previous three years coaching the defensive line in Buffalo. Kollar, who played eight seasons in the NFL as a defensive lineman, has 20 years of experience coaching in the NFL, including the last 19 as a defensive line coach.

Prior to his stint with Buffalo, Kollar coached the defensive line in St. Louis from 2001-05. In his five years coaching the defensive line in St. Louis, he helped DE Leonard Little emerge as a premier sack artist, with 57 sacks in five seasons. He helped the Rams earn a trip to the Super Bowl in 2001 during his first season with the team.

From 1990-2000, Kollar worked as the Atlanta Falcons defensive line coach. In 1998, the Falcons' defensive line tied for the NFL lead by giving up only six rushing touchdowns and set a team record by allowing an average of 75.2 rushing yards as Atlanta won the NFC Championship and earned a trip to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Kollar, 56, began his coaching career as a defensive assistant/special teams for Tampa Bay in 1984. He spent a year as a graduate assistant at Illinois in 1985 following his year in Tampa Bay. He was promoted to defensive line/special teams coach for the Illini in 1986 and spent two years in that position. Kollar assumed the same role at Purdue from 1988-89 before returning to the NFL.

Kollar was an All-America defensive lineman at Montana State and earned the Most Valuable Player award at the 1974 Senior Bowl. He was selected in the first round (23rd overall) of the 1974 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and played eight seasons for Cincinnati and Tampa Bay.

FRANK BUSH

Defensive Coordinator

19th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans

Frank Bush enters his third season with the Texans and first as the defensive coordinator. He was the senior defensive assistant for the previous two years.

This marks Bush's first opportunity to call the plays on defense, and he has preached an aggressive philosophy that emphasizes getting up the field and attacking the offense. Bush will also be tasked with working with the entire defense rather than a single position group for the first time.

In his first two years with Houston, Bush worked closely with the defensive line. With Bush's help, defensive end Mario Williams posted 26 sacks over the last two years. Williams shattered the team single-season sack record with 14 sacks and earned second-team All-Pro recognition in 2007. In 2008, he notched 12 sacks and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl, starting for the AFC squad. Defensive tackle Amobi Okoye set the franchise rookie sack record with 5.5 sacks in 2007 under Bush's tutelage.

Before coming to Houston, Bush spent the previous three seasons in Arizona. He was the linebackers coach from 2004-05 before being promoted to assistant head coach/linebackers in 2006. Bush coached new Texans defensive end Antonio Smith, a free agent addition in 2008, while in Arizona.

Before joining Dennis Green in Arizona, Bush worked as an assistant with the Denver Broncos (1995–03) and Houston Oilers (1992–94). Bush's linebackers helped the Cardinals defense to finish the season as the eighth-ranked defense in the NFL in 2005, an improvement from the 12th-ranked defense in 2004 and the 26th-ranked defense in 2003.

Bush served nine seasons with the Broncos— three as special teams coach (2001–03), one overseeing the defensive secondary/nickel packages (2000), and five as linebackers coach (1995–99). In 2003 Denver ranked fifth in the AFC in both punt and kickoff return average. Kicker Jason Elam accounted for 120 points for the second consecutive season, placing him fourth (2003), and second (2002), respectively. In 2001, Elam's 86 percent field goal accuracy mark (31-of-36) was the best in Bronco history and Reuben Droughns ranked third in the AFC with a 25.8-yard kickoff return average.

In 1995, his first season as linebackers coach with Denver, the Broncos defense improved from 28th to 15th, then skyrocketed to the fourth overall defense in the league in 1996, including first against the run. The 1997 season saw two of his pupils—John Mobley (162) and Bill Romanowski (117) rank 1-2 on the club in tackles as Denver forged consecutive World Championships with victories in Super Bowl XXXII over Green Bay following the 1997 season and Super Bowl XXXIII over Atlanta after the '98 campaign. In the latter campaign, the linebacker trio of Mobley (132) Glenn Cadrez (105), and Romanowski (95) led the team in tackles, Romanowski earned his second Pro Bowl berth, and the Broncos run defense finished third in the NFL.

After an outstanding college career as a three year starter at North Carolina State, Bush was a fifth-round draft choice by Houston in the 1985 NFL Draft and earned all-rookie acclaim starting 11 of 16 games for the Oilers before a spinal injury prematurely ended his pro career a year later. After serving as a college scout for the Oilers for five years (1987–92), he was the team's linebackers coach for three seasons, bringing his tenure with Houston as a player, scout, and assistant coach to 10 years. Bush's linebackers continued to play an integral role the following two seasons with the Broncos. In 2002, his special teams ranked among the best in the league as Denver ranked third in the AFC in kickoff coverage and fourth in kickoff return average.

Born in Athens, Ga., Bush lives in Houston with his wife, Stephanie.

KYLE SHANAHAN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

6th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Kyle Shanahan enters his fourth season with the Houston Texans, sixth in the NFL, and second as the offensive coordinator. Shanahan coached the quarterbacks in 2007 and the wide receivers in 2006 before being named offensive coordinator on January 11, 2008. At age 29, Shanahan is the youngest coordinator in the NFL.

Shanahan's first year as a coordinator was an overwhelming success, as the offense ranked third in the NFL, gaining a franchise-record 6,113 yards and passing for a franchise-record 4,267 yards. The offense was equally adept on the ground, running for 1,846 yards at a team-record 4.3-yard clip. Shanahan helped a pair of players earn Pro Bowl nods, with wide receiver Andre Johnson making his third career trip and tight end Owen Daniels making his first.

Johnson garnered first-team AP All-Pro honors after he led the NFL in receptions, with 115, and receiving yards, with 1,575. Running back Steve Slaton won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards. Quarterback Matt Schaub turned in his first 3,000-yard season, passing for 3,043 yards and 15 touchdowns against 10 interceptions, giving him a passer rating of 92.7. The offensive line featured the same starting lineup for all 16 games and gave up just 32 sacks in 555 pass attempts.

As the quarterbacks coach in 2007, Shanahan saw his group combine to have an outstanding season. The Texans signal callers were sacked just 22 times all year. Quarterback Matt Schaub threw for 2,241 yards and nine touchdowns with nine interceptions in his first year as a starter. Backup Sage Rosenfels didn't lag far behind, throwing for 1,684 yards and 15 touchdowns with 12 interceptions. Their 24 combined touchdown passes were a team record.

With Shanahan as his position coach in 2006, Johnson earned a starting nod in the 2007 Pro Bowl. Johnson led the NFL with 103 receptions and had his second 1,000-yard season with 1,147 yards. Johnson's 103 catches accounted for 31.3 percent of the Texans' total completions, more than any receiver in the league. Opposite Johnson, veteran Eric Moulds contributed 57 catches for 557 yards and a score. Kevin Walter, signed as a restricted free agent in the offseason, proved to be a solid addition with 17 catches for 160 yards on the year.

Shanahan joined the Texans from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as offensive quality control coach during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In his first season with the Bucs, he helped rookie Michael Clayton establish franchise rookie records for receptions and receiving touchdowns. He also helped receiver Joey Galloway finish seventh in the NFL in receiving yardage in 2005.

He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at UCLA, who participated in the Silicon Valley Bowl at the end of the season.

During his senior year playing at the University of Texas as a wide receiver, Shanahan played in 12 games and averaged 8.9 yards per reception.

He attended Duke University in 1999 and played wide receiver for the Blue Devils before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000. He spent two seasons at wide receiver for the Longhorns.

Shanahan was born in Minneapolis and attended Cherry Creek (Colo.) High School. Shanahan and his wife Mandy reside in Houston and celebrated the birth of their first daughter, Stella, last August.

JOE MARCIANO

Special Teams Coordinator

24th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

Joe Marciano enters his eighth season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans. Regarded as one of the league's top coaches in his field, Marciano has directed special teams for 24 NFL seasons. Marciano joins running backs coach Chick Harris as the only two coaches to have been with the Texans since the team's inception in 2002.

The 2008 special teams unit was one of the most consistent and explosive in the NFL in 2008. Kicker Kris Brown turned in the best season of his career, setting franchise records for most points, with 124, made field goals, with 29 and field goal percentage, at .879. His field goal percentage was a career-high, while his 124 points tied a career high and 29 field goals were his second-highest. Punt returner Jacoby Jones returned two punts for touchdowns, a franchise record, and finished third in the AFC with a 12.1-yard punt return average. Punter Matt Turk broke his own franchise mark with a 42.3-yard average on a record-low 53 attempts.

Marciano's special teams unit provided many of the biggest highlights of the 2007 season, tying three NFL records. The Texans tied the NFL single-season record with four kickoff returns for touchdown on the season, becoming just the fourth team in league history to do so. WR André Davis tied another league record when he became the seventh player in history to return two kickoffs for touchdown in one game, doing so vs. Jacksonville in the season finale. K Kris Brown, who scored a team-record 115 points, became just the third kicker in league history to make three field goals of 50 yards or longer in one game when he did so vs. Miami on October 7. P Matt Turk also set team records for gross and net punting average in his first season as a Texan, and the coverage unit held opponents to a record-low total of 151 punt return yards on the season.

Under Marciano's guidance in 2006, P Chad Stanley posted the best gross punting average of his career, averaging 41.6 yards per punt, and Brown led the team in scoring for the fifth consecutive season. The Texans still ranked sixth in the league in punt return average, at 10.5 yards per return; and the kick coverage team held opponents to the sixth-worst starting field position in the league.

Marciano's tenure as special teams coordinator was highlighted during the 2005 season. Pro Bowl selection and AP first team All-Pro kick returner Jerome Mathis was also honored by the NFL Alumni as the Special Teams Player of the Year and the Texans Rookie of the Year. He finished the season ranked second in the league for return men, returning 54 kickoffs for 1,542 yards and two touchdowns. He was the only player in the NFL to return two kicks for scores that season.

Marciano helped Brown finish the 2005 season with 102 points, including 26 field goals, the second-most of his career. Stanley also had a stellar 2005 season, finishing with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, the fourth most in the NFL. His 6.6 yard-per-return average also ranked sixth in the NFL.

In 2004, Brown set a club record with 85 points and nailed a career-high nine touchbacks. Second-year LB Antwan Peek had a breakout year with 18 special teams tackles and a blocked punt. Meanwhile, the Texans ranked seventh in the AFC in opponent average starting field position.

In 2003, Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the league. Brown nailed 18 of 22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4- yard kickoff return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards and Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8), leading the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles, and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals, and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84 of 101 field-goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points scored (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (five), and extra points (42). Also in 2000, Tampa Bay set a team mark and tied a league mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt-return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field-goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached wide receivers at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He serves as a spokesperson for Autism Speaks and is very active in the organization's annual fundraising walk held each fall in Houston. Marciano is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.

JOHN BENTON

Offensive Line Coach

6th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

John Benton enters his fourth season coaching the offensive line for the Houston Texans.

In his first season with the team, Benton helped the offensive line overcome a rash of injuries to improve in both pass protection and run blocking. Despite using eight different starting lineups, the 2006 Texans offensive line surrendered 25 fewer sacks than in 2005. On the ground, the line improved throughout the year and helped the team average 123.4 rushing yards per game over the second half of the season.

The line was even better in 2007, cutting the sack total in half from 2006, allowing just 22 on the year, which set a team record. The record-low sack total came while the team attempted a record-high 529 passes, meaning the line allowed a sack on just four percent of pass attempts. The line also paved the way for the team to rush for 1,586 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Last season, Benton's line featured the same starting lineup for all 16 games, marking the first such occurrence in team history. The line paved the way for rookie running back Steve Slaton to set a franchise record with 1,282 rushing yards, while the 32 sacks allowed were the second-fewest in team history. The 2008 offense was the most productive in Texans history, gaining 6,113 total yards, which ranked third in the NFL.

Benton broke into the NFL as the assistant offensive line coach in 2004. During his first season, the Rams' offensive line was led by Pro Bowl LT Orlando Pace. St. Louis finished the season with an 8-8 regular-season record, but qualified for the playoffs. The Rams rushed for 102 yards on their way to a 27-20 win at division rival Seattle in a Wild Card match-up. The offensive line gave Rams quarterbacks enough time to finish fourth in the NFL with 252.3 passing yards per game. The St. Louis ground attack gained 1,496 yards.

Benton was named the Rams' offensive line coach in 2005. His line opened holes for RB Stephen Jackson to rush for more than 1,000 yards for the first time in his career. Rams running backs averaged 1,579 rushing yards during Benton's two years as the line coach. Benton lettered at Colorado State from 1983-86 and earned honorable mention All-WAC accolades during his junior and senior seasons. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1987-90. His first offensive line job was at California University (Pa.), where he also served as the recruiting coordinator.

Benton returned to his alma mater in 1996. He was the offensive line coach until 2000 and also took over as the co-offensive coordinator in 2000 until 2003. Upon his promotion, Benton looked for tutelage from Denver Broncos offensive coordinator Gary Kubiak. Colorado State emulated the Broncos' power rushing attack.

A Durango, Colo. native, he and his wife Nicole, have two daughters – Gabrielle and Paige. The family resides in Sugar Land.

DAVID GIBBS

Defensive Backs Coach

8th NFL Season • 1st with Texans

David Gibbs enters into his first campaign for the Houston Texans as defensive backs coach. Gibbs inherits a Texans secondary that includes cornerback Dunta Robinson, who holds the franchise record for career interceptions.

Prior to joining the Texans, Gibbs spent the three previous seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. While in Kansas City, Gibbs' secondary only allowed 208.4 passing yards per game in 2006 and only one 300-yard passer. Under Gibbs' leadership in 2007, the Chiefs defense allowed 188.9 passing yards per game, which ranked them fifth in the league for pass defense.

Gibbs made his first move to the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2001, where he coached the safeties. The following season, Gibbs coached the secondary for the Broncos and from '03 to '04, he took over the defensive backs coaching role. While coaching at Denver in 2003, the Broncos ranked fourth in the league in total defense and allowed 176.8 passing yards per game, ranking them sixth in the league. Gibbs left Denver to return briefly to the college ranks in 2005, where he served as the defensive coordinator for Auburn.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Gibbs spent 10 years at the collegiate level. His first coaching stints came from 1991-94, where he spent time at both Oklahoma ('91-92) and Colorado ('93-94) as a graduate assistant. He coached the secondary at Kansas from '95 to '96 and followed then Kansas head coach Glen Mason to Minnesota in 1997 to be the defensive coordinator for the Gophers, making him the youngest defensive coordinator in NCAA Division I-A. He spent the next four seasons with Minnesota before making the jump to the NFL ranks.

Gibbs was a four-year letterman at Colorado as a defensive back, where he earned a share of the National Championship in his senior year when the team defeated Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl.

The Mount Airy, North Carolina native is married to Debbie and has two children, Hudson and Charlie Grace.

CHICK HARRIS

Running Backs Coach

29th NFL Season • 8th with Texans

Chick Harris enters his eighth season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans. Harris, who along with special teams coordinator Joe Marciano is one of two coaches to have been with the team since its inception, boasts 29 years of NFL coaching experience.

Harris has turned in impressive coaching performances in each of the last three years, producing a solid rushing attack each season in the face of a slew of injuries in the backfield. Last year, projected starter Ahman Green limped off in the season opener, leaving rookie third-round draft pick Steve Slaton as the primary option. Under Harris' guidance, Slaton started the final 15 games and won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards. Slaton led all AFC players with 1,659 total yards from scrimmage, and his five 100-yard rushing days were also a team single-season record.

In 2007, Green missed 10 games with a knee injury and rushed for just 260 yards. Harris leaned on 2006 leading rusher Ron Dayne, who produced a team- and career-high 773 yards and six touchdowns. Rookie undrafted free agent Darius Walker came on late in the year and ran for 264 yards over the last four games.

In 2006, after losing projected starter Domanick Williams early in training camp, Harris turned to a running back by committee approach to carry the load on the ground. Houston was one of three teams to have three different players rush for at least 90 yards in a game, and the Texans were the only team that had a pair of rookies each top the 90-yard mark in a game.

Dayne, the 1999 Heisman Trophy winner, came on late in the year and led the team with 612 yards and five touchdowns, including a career-high 153 yards and two touchdowns to lead Houston to its first-ever win over Indianapolis.

Harris helped Williams earn the 2003 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year award and develop into a two-time 1,000-yard rusher. Williams, drafted in the fourth round in 2003, is the franchise's all-time leading rusher with 3,195 career yards, and his 28 career touchdowns are the most in team history. He holds 27 team records, including the single-season records for rushing yards, with 1,188 in 2004, and rushing yards by a rookie, with 1,031 in 2003.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, from Tshimanga Biakabutuka to Richard Huntley to Brad Hoover to Fred Lane to Anthony Johnson to Derrick Moore. Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995 and also helped the Panthers reach the NFC Championship Game the following season.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons. He entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season at Long Beach, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl triumph over Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic hall of fame.

Born in Durham, N.C., Harris attended Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

JOHNNY HOLLAND

Linebackers Coach

15th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Johnny Holland enters his fourth year with the Houston Texans as the linebackers coach after spending the previous three seasons with the Detroit Lions. Holland, who starred on the field for the Green Bay Packers for seven years, enters his 15th season as a coach in the NFL.

The linebacker corps was led once again by MLB DeMeco Ryans in 2008. Ryans led the team for the third consecutive season with 112 tackles; and he moved into first on the franchise career solo tackle list with 310, topping Jamie Sharper's total of 300 solos from 2002-04. Second-year linebacker Zac Diles had a stellar start to the year and finished second on the team with 66 tackles despite missing the final eight games with a broken leg. Rookie Xavier Adibi earned All-Rookie honors after tallying 34 tackles, all of which came in the last half of the season.

In 2007, Ryans was elected to start the 2008 Pro Bowl and earned second-team Associated Press All-Pro recognition after leading the team with 127 tackles, including 98 solo stops, two sacks an interception, a forced fumble and three fumble recoveries. WLB Morlon Greenwood registered his fourth consecutive 100-tackle season, finishing second on the team with 118 stops, including 90 solos, to go along with a sack, a forced fumble and an interception.

In his first year with the team, Holland helped Ryans earn AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after one of the greatest seasons by a rookie defender in league history. Under Holland's guidance, Ryans led the NFL in solo tackles with 126, and his 156 total tackles were more than any rookie in the previous 20 years. Ryans also recorded 3.5 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and eight pass deflections. With the addition of Ryans, Greenwood slid outside and finished second on the team with 110 tackles.

In 2005, Holland's first year as linebackers coach with the Lions, the unit was ravaged by injuries with four linebackers ending the season on injured reserve, including Boss Bailey and Earl Holmes, who entered the season as starters. Holland molded his group into a solid unit and helped the defense hold opposing offenses under 300 total yards in five of the team's last seven games.

In 2003-04, Holland was a defensive assistant for the Lions, helping Texans defensive coordinator Richard Smith coach the linebackers. Holland began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1995-97 before coaching special teams in 1998 and linebackers in 1999. While on Mike Holmgren's staff in Green Bay, he helped lead the Packers to back-to-back NFC Championships following the 1995 and 1996 seasons and a World Championship in Super Bowl XXXI.

In 2000, Holland re-joined Holmgren in Seattle, where he served as the assistant special teams/assistant strength and conditioning coach. From 2001-02, he returned to his more familiar role as linebackers coach for the Seahawks.

A native of Hempstead, Texas, Holland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Texas A&M. He led the Aggies' vaunted "Wrecking Crew" defense in tackles in each of his final three seasons in College Station before moving on to the NFL as a second round draft choice by the Packers in 1987. Holland posted six consecutive seasons with at least 100 tackles for Green Bay before retiring in 1994. In 1993, after suffering a neck injury in 1992, he led the team in tackles with 145 and helped guide the Packers to their first playoff birth in 11 years.

Holland was enshrined in the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1993 and was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. In July, 2001, he was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

Holland and his wife, Faith, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Joli.

LARRY KIRKSEY

Wide Receivers Coach

13th NFL Season • 3rd with Texans

Larry Kirksey enters his third year as the wide receivers coach for the Texans. He brings over a decade of experience to coaching wide receivers. He has coached three receivers, Jerry Rice (1,549), Jimmy Smith (862) and Terrell Owens (801), that have over 800 receptions in their career.

In his first year with the Texans, Kirksey oversaw a group that had three players top 700 receiving yards, making Houston one of just four teams to achieve that feat. The unit's depth was tested when two-time Pro Bowl WR Andre Johnson missed seven games due to injury, but fellow receivers Kevin Walter and Andre' Davis stepped up to fill the void. Walter set career highs in receptions, with 65, yards, with 800, and touchdowns, with four. His 65 catches led the team and he was second in receiving yards. Davis emerged as one of the best deep threats in the NFL, averaging nearly 18 yards per catch. Despite playing in just nine games, Johnson once again led the team in receiving yards, with 851, and touchdowns, with eight.

Kirksey's group topped those numbers in 2008. Johnson led the NFL in receptions, with 115, and receiving yards, with 1,575. Both were career highs for the franchise's all-time leading receiver, who earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors and started for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. Johnson teamed with Walter for the most prolific receiving tandem in the league. The pair combined for 2,474 receiving yards. Walter's 899 yards were a career high for him. Both also matched the franchise record for receiving touchdowns with eight apiece.

Kirksey spent the 2006 season as an asst. head coach/running backs at Middle Tennessee State. The Blue Raiders won the Sun Belt title on their way to the Motor City Bowl.

Kirksey spent the 2004 season in Denver as a volunteer coach for the Broncos. He spent 2003 as the wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville, Jimmy Smith led the team with 54 receptions while missing four games.

He spent the 2001-02 season in Detroit. During the 2001 season, Johnnie Morton finished the year 12th in the NFL with 1,154 receiving yards. The Lions finished sixth in the league with 224.8 yards per game.

Kirksey, a Kentucky native, was an assistant head coach in charge of the wide receivers at Texas A&M in 2000. That year, he helped lead the Aggies to a berth in the Independence Bowl while injecting hints of the West Coast offense.

In 1994, Kirksey began his NFL coaching career with the responsibility of coaching the NFL's all-time reception and receiving yards leader Jerry Rice. Under Kirksey, Rice set an NFL record with 1,848 receiving yards, while setting a career high of 122 receptions in 1995. From 1994-99 Rice caught 606 passes for 6,666 yards. Kirksey's receivers helped set a Super Bowl record in Super Bowl XXIX with six touchdown catches, including three by Rice.

From 1990 to 93, Kirksey coached running backs for Alabama, where he helped lead the Crimson Tide to a national championship in 1992. Kirksey's running back corps led the SEC in rushing that season with an average of 252 yards per game. He coached running backs at the University of Florida under Charlie Pell and Galen Hall from 1984 to 88. During his tenure at Florida, he coached star running backs Lorenzo Hampton, Neal Anderson, John L. Williams, and Emmitt Smith. After leaving Florida, Kirksey spent one year as running backs coach at Pittsburgh.

Prior to joining the Gators, Kirksey gained valuable experience by taking over head coaching duties at Kentucky State in 1983.

Kirksey got his start in coaching when he became the wide receiver/tight end coach at Miami of Ohio in 1974 and remained with the Redskins for three seasons before joining the staff at Kentucky. He also coached wide receivers and tight ends for the Wildcats from 1977 to 1981, then spent the 1982 campaign coaching the same positions at Kansas.

Kirksey earned a bachelor's degree from Eastern Kentucky in 1974, where he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at wide receiver. As a senior, he earned all-conference honors. Kirksey was out of coaching in 2005 while serving as deputy executive director of the Kentucky Sports Authority.

He and wife Anita have two children, Jessica and Jared.

BRIAN PARIANI

Tight Ends Coach

19th NFL Season • 4th with Texans

Brian Pariani enters his fourth season with the Houston Texans as the tight ends coach. Pariani is responsible for one of the more utilized units in the Texans' new offensive scheme. Under Pariani's guidance, Owen Daniels has established himself as one of the best young tight ends in the NFL.

Daniels earned his first Pro Bowl trip in 2008 while under Pariani's watch. The third-year pro caught 70 passes for 862 yards, both career highs, and two touchdowns. He ranked among the top five AFC tight ends in receptions, receiving yards, first downs (46), yards per catch (12.3) and yards per game (53.9). In addition to Daniels' stellar year, Joel Dreessen also established career highs in receptions and yards, catching 11 passes for 77 yards on the year.

In 2007, Pariani's tight ends had the most productive year in team history, combining to catch 73 pass for 859 yards and six touchdowns. They were led by Daniels, who was sixth among NFL tight ends with 63 receptions for 768 yards and three touchdowns. Nearly 70 percent of Daniels' receptions (44 of 63) went for first downs, which ranked fourth in the league among tight ends. Dreessen caught four passes for 55 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career.

In his first season with Houston, Pariani developed Daniels, a fourth-round draft choice, into the most productive rookie tight end in the NFL and a first-team PFWA/Pro Football Weekly all-rookie selection. Daniels set the Texans rookie record with five receiving touchdowns, which matched wide receiver Andre Johnson for the team lead. Daniels finished his first year with 34 catches for 352 yards and five touchdowns, all of which were first among rookie tight ends.

The move to Houston returned Pariani to the pro coaching ranks after spending the 2005 season as the offensive coordinator at Syracuse University. He spent 1995-04 coaching the tight ends with the Denver Broncos alongside Texans head coach Gary Kubiak. Before his time with the Broncos he coached with the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94. Pariani teamed with Kubiak to bring the 49ers a Super Bowl championship in 1994.

In coaching with the Broncos during Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII and with the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XXIX, Pariani became one of only 17 coaches in the NFL to have won World Championships with two different organizations and one of nine coaches to have done it with teams from different conferences.

While with the Broncos, Pariani coached Shannon Sharpe, the leading receiving tight end in NFL history. Sharpe led the NFL in receptions by a tight end from 1996-98 averaging 73 catches over the three year span. Sharpe totaled 425 receptions for 5,373 yards and 38 touchdowns with Pariani. Sharpe retired in 2004 finishing his career with eight Pro Bowl selections. He retired as the NFL career record holder at the tight end position for receptions, with 815, and yards, with 10,060, and 62 touchdowns. On October 20, 2002, Sharpe set an NFL record with 214 receiving yards by a tight end in a 37-34 OT win at Kansas City.

During his time in Denver, Pariani's tight ends combined for 859 receptions and 9,948 receiving yards, most in the NFL over that 10-year period. In 2001, Pariani's unit combined to catch 100 passes, sending Dwayne Carswell to his first Pro Bowl.

On the ground, Pariani's group helped lead the way for Denver runners to rush for 22,483, most in the NFL from 1995-04. Bronco running backs topped the 1,000-yard mark nine times during Pariani's tenure in the Mile High City.

In 1990 Pariani served as a scouting assistant with the San Francisco 49ers before being promoted to offensive coaches assistant in 1991. The 49ers offense led the league in total yards in 1992 and 93, and scored a team-record 505 points and 62 touchdowns in 1994 en route to a Super Bowl title. After earning his bachelor's degree in political science from UCLA in 1989, Pariani began his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Pariani was born in San Francisco and was a three sport athlete at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, Calif. Pariani and his wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Jessica and Gianna. The family resides in Houston.

FRANK POLLACK

Assistant Offensive Line Coach
3rd NFL Season • 3rd with Texans

Frank Pollack is in his third year as the Texans assistant offensive line coach. Pollack will continue to work closely with offensive line coach John Benton to mold the Texans front five.

Last season, the line featured the same starting lineup for all 16 games, marking the first such occurrence in team history. The line paved the way for rookie running back Steve Slaton to set a franchise record with 1,282 rushing yards, while the 32 sacks allowed were the second-fewest in team history. The 2008 offense was the most productive in Texans history, gaining 6,113 total yards, which ranked third in the NFL.

In his first year with the Texans, Pollack helped mold an offensive line that became the best in team history. The line cut its 2006 sack total nearly in half, from 43 to just 22 in 2007, allowing a sack on just four percent of the team's pass attempts. On the ground, the line helped RB Ron Dayne to a team- and career-high 773 yards and six touchdowns.

Pollack's first collegiate coaching position was at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, in 2005 as the co-offensive line coach working specifically with the tackles and tight ends. He was promoted to the offensive line coach in 2006 where the Lumberjacks produced the Big Sky Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year. The Northern Arizona offense led the conference in scoring (34.4) and passing (267.2) and finished second in rushing (137.9). Their points per game were fourth in the Division 1-AA.

Pollack was a sixth-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 1990. He played by the Bay from 1990-91 before moving to Denver where he played from 1992-93 before ending his career with the 49ers from 1994-98. He finished his career with 90 career games and one Super Bowl Championship with San Francisco in 1994.

Following his NFL career, Pollack worked as a sales associate with Cisco Systems before cofounding eHome, serving as vice president of business development for two years. He was an associate with HRJ Capital/Champion Ventures in San Jose, Calif.

After his first season three players received Pro Bowl nominations (CB Deltha O'Neal, DT Trevor Pryce and LB Al Wilson). In his only season with the Washington Redskins, Rhodes led the defense to end of the season ranking of fourth. Two players from that season, CB Champ Bailey and DE Marco Coleman, earned Pro Bowl bids.

In 1999, Rhodes held the position of head coach, leading the Green Bay Packers to an 8-8 finish. Prior to his time coaching at Lambeau, Rhodes was at the helm in Philadelphia for four seasons. He earned NFL Coach of the Year honors in 1995 when he guided the Eagles to a 10-6 record and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff round.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

TEXANS WIN EIGHT GAMES BACK-TO-BACK

The Houston Texans finished the 2008 campaign with their second consecutive 8-8 season. The 16 wins over two seasons are the most in team history. Head coach Gary Kubiak became the Texans all-time leader in wins, amassing 22 over his first three seasons in Houston.

The Texans finished the season with four wins in the month of December to set a team record for wins in a month. Houston won five of its last six games which included the team's first four-game winning streak. The Texans finished the season with a win over the Chicago Bears 31-24 for their third consecutive win in the season finale.

Houston began the season with three consecutive road games, becoming the first team since 2001 to start the home portion of their season in October. The Texans endured Hurricane Ike, which hit in the Houston area on September 13 and damaged the roof of Reliant Stadium forcing the team to reschedule their Week 2 matchup against Baltimore. The Texans started the year 0-4, but managed to finish 8-4 over the last 12 weeks becoming the 10th team in NFL history to start 0-4 or worse and finish .500 or better.

Two third-quarter touchdowns put Pittsburgh ahead 35-3. The Titans answered on RB LenDale White's two-yard score. A fumble recofery by LB DeMeco Ryans set up Brown, who connected from 24 yards to make it 7-6 Titans. After a Tennessee touchdown, Slaton scored from eight yards out to make it 14-12 after the point after attempt failed. The Titans scored twice more to go up 21-12 at the half. 2007 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

TEXANS WIN FRANCHISE RECORD EIGHT GAMES

The Houston Texans finished the 2007 campaign with their best mark in team history with an 8-8 record. Houston played well at Reliant Stadium finishing 6-2 at home, besting their 4-4 record from a year ago. Houston finished the season on a four-game home winning streak to set a team record.

Houston's defense was led by the starting 2008 Pro Bowl MLB DeMeco Ryans, who led the team with 127 tackles. He teamed with DE Mario Williams; both were named second team AP All-Pro. Williams set a franchise record by recording 14 sacks in his sophomore campaign.

The Texans tied an NFL record by returning four kickoffs for scores. WR André Davis set a team record with three kickoff returns on the season. K Kris Brown set a team record with 115 points and set an NFL record by recording three field goals of 54-yards or longer in one game.

The Texans scored on their first drive and their last, but in between it was all Colts. QB Sage Rosenfels led the Texans down the field on the opening possession, completing 4-of-5 pass attempts for 51 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown pass to WR Kevin Walter. After 38 straight points by Indianapolis, Rosenfels led the Texans on a four play, 31-yard drive late in the fourth quarter that was capped when WR Andre Johnson got free over the middle for a six-yard touchdown reception. Walker completed the scoring by running in the two-point conversion attempt to make the score 38-15.

SUMMARY

The Texans (8-8) earned their best record in franchise history with a 42-28 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars in Reliant Stadium. WR André Davis became just the seventh player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in a game. The Texans' 42 points were a team record. RB Ron Dayne and TE Owen Daniels both found the end zone in the first half, but Davis stole the show before halftime. After a Jaguars touchdown, Davis returned his first kickoff for a touchdown, racing 97 yards down the sideline just 15 seconds before halftime. On the first play of the second half, Davis dashed 104 yards on the opening kickoff to make it 28-14. Dayne and RB Darius Walker both scored second-half touchdowns to complete the Texans scoring spree. The win gave Houston its first .500 record in franchise history.

2006 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

TEXANS WIN SIX IN KUBIAK'S FIRST SEASON

The Houston Texans finished the first season of the Gary Kubiak era with a 6-10 record, the second best mark in team history. After dropping the first three games of the season, the Texans finished the season with a 6-7 record including a pair of wins over their division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and the team's first win over AFC Champion Indianapolis, preventing the Colts from obtaining a first-round bye in the playoffs. The Texans finished the season strong as they won three games in the month of December, tying a team high in wins in a month.

Houston was led by the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year LB DeMeco Ryans. He led the NFL with 126 solo tackles and finished with 156 total tackles, second in the NFL. The Texans defense improved as the season progressed. After struggling during the first three games of the season, the Texans defense finished the season yielding 337.5 yards per game, the fewest amount of yards since giving up 326.9 in 2002. Houston's secondary was led by CB Dunta Robinson. The third-year corner from South Carolina finished the season tied for the team lead in interceptions (2) and recorded his first career touchdown with a nine-yard return against the Buffalo Bills in Week 12.

On offense, WR Andre Johnson again led the Texans for the third consecutive season in receptions with a team-record and NFL season-high 103 receptions. He also set a team record with 1,147 receiving yards. QB David Carr led the NFL with a 68.3 completion percentage, while completing 302 passes, a new career and team high.

Houston won four more games this season than in 2006, establishing a team record for the biggest turnaround in team history. The Texans enter the 2007 draft with the eighth overall pick in the first round.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-1) lost in head coach Gary Kubiak's NFL debut 24-10 to the Philadelphia Eagles at Reliant Stadium. Houston scored on the opening drive of the season when WR Eric Moulds caught a 25-yard touchdown from QB David Carr. The Eagles got on the board in the second quarter when QB Donovan McNabb found WR Donté Stallworth for a 42-yard touchdown. K Kris Brown nailed a 34-yard field goal to take a 10-7 lead just before halftime, but McNabb guided the Eagles down the field and found WR Reggie Brown for a five-yard touchdown just before intermission. The play gave the Eagles their first lead of the game at 14-10 and Philadelphia wouldn't look back. Philadelphia added 10 more points in the second half, while Houston managed just 11 offensive plays in the last two quarters. Houston was led on defense by rookie MLB DeMeco Ryans, who had 13 tackles to lead both teams in his NFL debut.

WR Andre Johnson starred for Houston, racking up 152 receiving yards on 11 catches. A 53-yard reception by Johnson set up TE Mark Bruener's two-yard touchdown catch to put Houston up 7-0. Houston's defense looked to get off the field early again on the ensuing drive, but on third-and-six, Brunell hit RB Clinton Portis on a shovel pass out of the shotgun that went for 74 yards. Two plays later, RB Ladell Betts scampered into the end zone from nine yards to tie the score. Washington ultimately scored 31 straight points before the Texans got back into the end zone. TE Owen Daniels' second touchdown of his career came with 12:21 left in the game and RB Ron Dayne's two-point conversion closed out the scoring at 31-15. CB Dunta Robinson led the Texans defense with 11 tackles.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-3) handed head coach Gary Kubiak his first NFL win by defeating the Miami Dolphins 17-15 at Reliant Stadium. After a scoreless first quarter, Miami K Olindo Mare got things started with a 52-yard field goal in the second. Texans K Kris Brown answered with a 32-yarder of his own to knot the score at 3-3 at halftime. Mare hit a 29-yarder in the third to give Miami a 6-3 lead heading into the final stanza. QB David Carr was the first to reach the end zone, running in from one yard out on a bootleg to give Houston its first lead at 10-6. Carr found WR Andre Johnson for a nine-yard touchdown on the next drive, extending the lead to 17-6. Miami rallied late with a field goal and a touchdown, but the comeback fell short when DE Mario Williams batted away an attempted two-point conversion pass with 1:39 left. Williams also recorded his first career sack and finished with 1.5 on the day. Johnson topped the century mark for the third time in four games.

One of those scoring strikes came to WR Andre Johnson, who broke the 100-yard receiving mark for the fourth time on the season with eight catches for 106 yards. Rookie RB Wali Lundy emerged from a crowded Houston backfield to shine with 93 yards on 19 carries, including the first scoring run of his career. SUMMARY

The Texans (2-6) were upset-minded at Giants Stadium, leading the Giants 10-7 in the fourth quarter, but when QB Eli Manning found TE Jeremy Shockey in the right corner of the end zone with 7:49 remaining in game, New York took the lead for good. The ensuing Texans drive moved into Giants territory, but when FB Jameel Cook fumbled on New York's 38-yard line after a three-yard catch, the game was all but over as the Giants recovered and were able to kill the last five minutes off the clock. Cook's fumble was the only turnover of the game for the Texans in a game that was dominated by both teams' defenses. Houston's defense allowed just two scores on the day and just 285 yards to a Giants team that ranked fourth in the NFL in total yards entering the game. The Giants defense was up to the challenge as well, limiting Houston to 81 rushing yards and 251 yards total for the game. K Kris Brown got the Texans on the board in the second quarter thanks a 41-yard field goal making the score 7-3. Houston took the lead in the third quarter when QB David Carr took to the air, launching himself from the Giants' two-yard line into the end zone to put his team in front 10-7 with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-6) swept the season series from the Jacksonville Jaguars by defeating the Jags 13-10 at ALLTELL Stadium thanks to a turnover-minded defense. Houston's defense entered the game with just two interceptions, but it left Jacksonville with six after intercepting Jaguars QB David Garrard four times. Garrard entered the game with the Jaguars team record in consecutive pass attempts without an interception. That streak ended at 176 pass attempts when LB Morlon Greenwood collected his first career interception. Even with Houston's strong defensive showing, it looked as though Jacksonville might have a chance to tie or win the game in the final moments. After QB Sage Rosenfels was stuffed on a third-and-one at the Texans' 41-yard line, it appeared as though Jacksonville would get the ball back with about a minute and half remaining in the game. However, head coach Gary Kubiak gambled and on fourth-and-one with the game on the line, the rookie head coach handed the ball to RB Samkon Gado who surged forward for the first down giving Houston the win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-7) stormed back from a 14-point deficit to lead 21-17 late in the fourth quarter against the Buffalo Bills at Reliant Stadium, but a 15-yard touchdown pass from QB J.P. Losman to WR Peerless Price with just nine seconds remaining earned Buffalo the win. The loss snapped a two-game winning streak for the Texans and ruined a record-setting performance by QB David Carr, who completed 22 consecutive passes at one point to tie the NFL single-game record. The Houston offense was led by a running game that produced 188 yards, the second-highest single-game total in team history. The Bills countered with WR Lee Evans, who snagged 11 balls for an eye-popping 265-yard performance, including 83-yard touchdown receptions on each of the Bills' first two possessions to give Buffalo a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. CB Dunta Robinson picked off Losman deep in Bills territory and returned it nine yards for the first touchdown of his career to put Houston up 21-17. That looked to be enough for the win until Price's game-winning catch in the waning moments.

SUMMARY

The Texans (3-8) fell to the New York Jets 26-11 at The Meadowlands. Despite allowing a franchise-record 27 yards rushing defensively, Houston couldn't find the end zone until the waning moments of the fourth quarter. QB David Carr set career highs in both attempts (54) and completions (39) on his way to 321 yards passing, but when he finally found a receiver in the end zone, the game was out of reach. On the day the Texans outgained the Jets 332 yards to 304, but managed only 25 yards on the ground themselves. WR Andre Johnson surpassed career single-season bests with 10 receptions for 98 yards and a touchdown. LB DeMeco Ryans led the defense with a game-high 14 tackles. K Kris Brown supplied the first points for the Texans with a 47-yard field goal in the second quarter.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-8) used a stellar performance by LB DeMeco Ryans and three K Kris Brown field goals to outlast the Oakland Raiders 23-14 at McAfee Coliseum. Ryans was sensational in the win, totaling a career-high 15 tackles to go along with a sack, three passes defensed, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and an interception in the end zone on the Raiders last drive. In a game that saw the Texans amass negative-five yards passing and just 124 yards of total offense, it was the Texans defense and special teams that carried Houston to the win. WR Jerome Mathis returned to the lineup for the first time on the year and had an 87-yard kickoff return to set up a three-yard TD run by RB Wali Lundy, Houston's only offensive score of the game. CB Dexter Wynn had a 58-yard punt return to set up a field goal. The Texans defense also chipped in on the scoring with a 58-yard fumble return by CB DeMarcus Faggins to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Nine points from Brown in the fourth quarter propelled Houston to its second road win of the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans (4-9) rallied to tie the Tennessee Titans at 20 points apiece with 2:09 remaining in the fourth quarter, but fell in overtime 26-20, thanks to a 39-yard touchdown sprint by Titans QB Vince Young. After a pair of field goals from Tennessee K Rob Bironas, the Texans found the end zone twice courtesy of RB Ron Dayne to go up 14-6. Tennessee RB Travis Henry scored from nine yards out on the ensuing possession to pull his team within a point at 14-13. Houston extended its lead to 17-13 in the fourth quarter a 49-yard field goal from K Kris Brown. Henry's second touchdown of the day, this time from two yards out, put Tennessee up 20-17 before Brown's 46-yarder evened things with 1:44 to play. The Titans won the toss in overtime and returned the kickoff to the Tennessee 43-yard line. Six plays later, the Titans faced third-and-14 at Houston's 39-yard line when Young took off up the middle and raced into the end zone to end the game.

New England's 230 yards was the third-lowest total allowed by the Texans all year. Dayne rushed for at least 85 yards for the third-straight game with 94 yards on 18 carries. LB DeMeco Ryans collected 10 tackles, marking the fourth-straight game in which the rookie linebacker reached double-digit stops and the eighth time overall on the season.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-10) sprinted out to a 14-0 lead against the Indianapolis Colts and rode that momentum to a 27-24 win thanks to a 48-yard field goal from Kris Brown as time expired, giving the Texans their first win over Indianapolis in team history. RB Ron Dayne led the way with a career-high 153 yards and two first-quarter touchdowns, and FB Vonta Leach scored his first career touchdown to give Houston a 21-14 halftime lead, but the real drama came in the fourth quarter. With the Texans leading 21-14 going into the last period, Brown booted a 42-yard field goal to push the lead back to seven points. A touchdown pass from QB Peyton Manning to WR Marvin Harrison drew the Colts even with 2:41 to play. Houston chewed up the remaining time on a 31-yard drive to set up Brown's game-winner.

SUMMARY

The Texans (6-10) defeated the Cleveland Browns 14-6 for their first-ever season-ending victory. With Houston's win against the Indianapolis Colts, the Texans finished the 2006 season with back-to-back wins and finished with their best home record in franchise history with a 4-4 mark at Reliant Stadium. Rookie RB Chris Taylor had a career-high 99 yards on 20 carries. He added his first NFL touchdown to the stats sheet as well, the only offensive score in the game. Houston managed just 177 total yards in the game and had the ball for less than 22 minutes. Trailing 3-0 at halftime, Taylor scored to cap Houston's first drive of the second half to make the score 7-3. The game's decisive play happened on Cleveland's ensuing drive as DT Anthony Maddox forced a fumble while sacking Browns QB Charlie Frye. Maddox picked the ball off the ground and rumbled 47 yards for his first career touchdown to make the score 14-3. Houston held Cleveland to just three more points the rest of the way. Houston's 6-10 record marked a four-game improvement over the 2005 season and also the second-best record in franchise history.

2005 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

Texans finish the season 2-14

The Houston Texans completed their fourth season with a 2-14 record, worst in franchise history. Houston faced five teams that had at least ten wins on the season, four of which made the playoffs and three that won their division.

Houston was plagued by injuries and changes during their 2005 campaign. The Texans had 10 combinations starters on the offensive line. Five Texans linemen started at least two games at different positions. Houston improved on their rushing average in 2005, averaging 4.2 yards per carry versus 3.9 the season before. RB Domanick Davis battled through inflammation in his knee the entire season to rush for 976 yards, falling 24 yards shy of his third consecutive 1,000 yard season to begin his career. Others like Carr and RB Jonathan Wells picked up the slack. Both rushed for over 300 yards and passed the career 1,000 yard rushing mark. They join Davis as the only three players to rush for 1,000 yards as a Texan.

The Texans defense was hampered by injury. They said goodbye to their signal caller and leader LB Kailee Wong in Week 5 when he tore ligaments in his knee forcing him to miss the season. The middle was anchored by LB Morlon Greenwood, who led the team with 143 tackles, and LB DaShon Polk, who made a career high 134 tackles.

Houston also got contributions from a pair of rookies picked on the second day of the draft who came up big. KR Jerome Mathis, a fourth-round pick, was named to the Pro Bowl and was named AP First Team All Pro as he averaged 28.6 yards per return. He returned a pair of kickoffs for touchdowns, including the first in Texans history. S C.C. Brown, a sixth-round pick, set a Texans rookie record by recording 93 tackles and made one interception.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-1) lost their second consecutive season opener, after the Buffalo Bills took an early lead at Ralph Wilson Stadium and never relinquished it. Buffalo K Rian Lindell was the star of the game with five field goals and 16 of his team's 22 points. The Bills scored on all five first-half possessions, with Lindell booting four field goals and QB J.P. Losman hitting T Jason Peters for a one-yard touchdown pass. Houston's lone score of the day came in the second quarter when QB David Carr dove into the end zone frome one yard out on fourth-and-goal. Carr accounted for 44 of the team's 75 yards on the scoring drive, passing for 21 and running for 23 more, including the touchdown. Houston's offense was never able to get into a rhythm during the game and was held to just 120 total yards and 12 first downs while turning the ball over five times. Carr completed just nine-of-21 passes for 70 yards and was intercepted three times. DT Seth Payne led the way on defense with eight tackles, and S Jason Simmons registered his second career sack, dropping Losman for a six-yard loss in the third quarter.

Cincinnati took a quick 3-0 lead by virtue of a 24-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham on the Bengals opening drive. The Texans responded by going 49 yards on a team-high 12 plays to set up K Kris Brown's first field goal of the season, which was good from 28 yards. The Bengals regained the lead in the second quarter on QB Carson Palmer's one-yard touchdown pass to FB Jeremi Johnson. Houston QB David Carr evened the score early in the third when he hit FB Moran Norris on a four-yard play-action touchdown pass. A pair of field goals from Graham in the fourth quarter gave the Bengals their six-point margin of victory. RB Domanick Davis had his best game of the young season, rushing for 81 yards on 19 carries, and WR Jabar Baffney caught six passes for a team-high 88 yards. LB Kailee Wong notched his first sack of the season, and CB Dunta Robinson had a sack and a forced fumble. SS C.C. Brown had a game-high nine tackles.

SUMMARY

The Texans (0-4) fell 34-20 to the Tennessee Titans at Reliant Stadium. The Titans scored on the opening drive of the game with a 10-yard scoring pass from QB Steve McNair to TE Ben Troupe. The Texans answered when K Kris Brown nailed a 32-yard field goal on Houston's first drive. RB Domanick Davis went 44 yards on second down from the Houston 27 to set up Brown's second field goal, a 38-yarder, on Houston's next drive. Tennessee took a 10-6 lead into halftime thanks to a 52-yard field goal from K Rob Bironas. Brown opened the scoring in the third quarter with his third field goal of the day, but 17 consecutive Tennessee points put the game out of reach. Brown's fourth field goal and a three-yard touchdown pass from QB David Carr to WR Corey Bradford in the fourth quarter proved to be too little, too late for the Texans.

After Alexander's third touchdown made the score 28-7 in the third quarter, the Texans finally pushed across a score of their own when QB David Carr found RB Domanick Davis open on a play-action pass for a 27-yard touchdown to make it 28-10. Alexander scored for a fourth time in the fourth quarter, and RB Maurice Morris punched in an 11-yard touchdown of his own to close the scoring. The Texans defense notched its first interception of the season when LB Troy Evans picked off Seattle QB Matt Hasselbeck in the second quarter.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-6) notched their first win of the season, 19-16, over the Cleveland Browns at Reliant Stadium behind a stellar special teams effort and two take-aways on defense. The Texans took the lead for the first time this season when QB David Carr found rookie WR Jerome Mathis on a 34-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. Cleveland evened the game 7-7 on QB Trent Dilfer's eight-yard touchdown pass to TE Aaron Shea. From that point on, the show belonged to the kickers. Cleveland K Phil Dawson booted field goals of 28 and 29 yards to put the Browns out front 13-7, and Texans K Kris Brown's 38-yarder made it 13-10 at half-time. A 37-yarder from Brown tied the game in the third quarter. Following a Cleveland turnover, Brown nailed a 35-yard field goal to put the Texans ahead 16-13 with 14:12 left in the contest. After a Texans punt, Cleveland tied the score when Dawson booted a 37-yarder. Mathis returned the ensuing kickoff 63 yards, setting up Brown's game-winning 40-yarder with less than three minutes left in the contest.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-7) fell to the Jacksonville Jaguars for the first time since 2003 in a 21-14 loss at ALLTEL Stadium. The Texans took the lead with 10:23 left in the first half when QB David Carr found WR Corey Bradford open near the right hashmark in Jacksonville territory. Bradford eluded several defenders for a 31-yard touchdown to put Houston up 7-0. A Texans fumble set up Jacksonville's first score when QB Byron Leftwich found WR Ernest Wilford for a 12-yard touchdown pass. The Texans answered immediately when RB Jonathan Wells scored from seven yards out on fourth-and-one to give Houston a 14-7 lead near the end of the third quarter. Leftwich rushed for an eight-yard touchdown to tie the game 14-14 early in the fourth quarter. RB Greg Jones rushed for a 12-yard touchdown the following drive to put Jacksonville ahead for good with under three minutes to play. WR Andre Johnson returned to the starting lineup for the first time since Week 5 and caught a game-high nine passes for 91 yards. Rookie DT Travis Johnson notched his first career sack, dropping Leftwitch for a four-yard loss in the third quarter.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-8) lost their eighth consecutive game to the Indianapolis Colts despite a valiant third-quarter comeback attempt and a 2-0 advantage in the turnover battle. The Colts wrapped up their season series with the Texans, 31-17, behind QB Peyton Manning's three touchdown passes and RB Edgerrin James' 122 rushing yards. The Colts raced out to a 21-0 lead in the first half on the strength of two Manning touchdown passes and a scoring run by James. Houston finally got on the board with RB Jonathan Wells' 14-yard touchdown run to make it 21-7 at the half. QB David Carr hit WR Jabar Gaffney on the opening drive of the third quarter to push Indy's lead back to 14. Manning responded with his third touchdown pass to make it 28-14. Houston K Kris Brown drilled at 24-yard field goal to make it 28-17, but Colts K Mike Vanderjagt's 45-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter capped the scoring.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-11) lost 16-15 to the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium when K Matt Stover nailed a 38-yard field goal with less than 10 seconds on the game clock. Houston K Kris Brown led the way with five field goals, including three in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough as the Texans came up just short. Brown got Houston on the board first with a 39-yard field goal in the first quarter. After Baltimore QB Kyle Boller snuck up the middle for a six-yard touchdown, Brown drilled a 26-yarder to make it 7-6 Ravens at halftime. Brown made a 22-yarder less than 30 seconds into the fourth quarter, giving the Texans a 9-7 lead. The Ravens fought back with 7:23 remaining in the contest when LB Adalius Thomas intercepted QB David Carr's tipped pass at the Houston 20 and returned it for a touchdown. Brown again brought the Texans back with his fourth and fifth field goals of the day. A 29-yarder brought Houston to within two at 14-12, and his 39-yarder with less than a minute to play appeared to be the game-winner, but Boller drove the Ravens 67 yards in eight plays to set up Stover's heroics.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-12) lost to the Tennessee Titans at The Coliseum when Rob Bironas nailed a 21-yarder with 10 seconds left on the game clock. Rookie WR Jerome Mathis made things interesting when he returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards to the Tennessee 26. A 15-yard face-mask penalty on CB Reynaldo Hill set up Kris Brown's 31-yard field goal with no time on the clock, but the attempt missed wide right. The Texans took a 3-0 advantage into the second quarter following a 30-yard field goal by Brown. Bironas tied the game with a 23-yard attempt with 4:32 left in the first half. The Texans engineered a game-long 72-yard scoring drive on nine plays before halftime. QB David Carr rolled out and found Davis on a three-yard route that made the score 10-3 after Brown's extra point. The teams traded punts twice in the third quarter before rookie CB Pacman Jones returned Chad Stanley's punt 52 yards for a momentum-swinging touchdown. The Texans had a chance to regain the lead with 3:53 left in the game, but Brown's 37-yard field goal was blocked. On the subsequent possession, the Titans marched into Houston territory, where Bironas nailed the field goal that clinched the Titans' fourth victory of the season.

RB LaBrandon Toefield rushed for three touchdowns and 24 yards for the visitors, while QB David Carr paced the Texans with two touchdown passes and 295 passing yards. Houston led 13-10 at halftime thanks to a 37-yard first-quarter field goal by K Kris Brown and a 50-yard touchdown pass from Carr to WR Corey Bradford. After a Toefield touchdown, WR Andre Johnson scored on a 53-yard hookup with Carr to put the Texans up 20-17. The lead would be short-lived, though, as Jacksonville reeled off 21 unanswered points to close the game and seal the victory. A touchdown late in the second quarter and a field goal to start the third rallied San Francisco to a 10-10 tie. Backup QB Tony Banks threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to WR Corey Bradford to put Houston up 17-10 in the third, but the 49ers tied it again thanks to a 40-yard interception return for touchdown. K Joe Nedney eventually won it for the Niners with 3:55 remaining in overtime on a 33-yard field goal.

2004 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

Texans improve for third consecutive season

The Houston Texans finished the 2004 season with a 7-9 record –two games better than 2003 and with significant accomplishments to build upon next season.

The Texans lost 22-14 to the Cleveland Browns to end the season but strung together a two-game road winning streak at Chicago and Jacksonville early in December. Houston had three two-game win streaks after going the first two years without back-to-back wins. The Texans also swept two AFC South opponents – Jacksonville and Tennessee – to finish 4-2 in what many consider the toughest division in professional football.

WR Andre Johnson became the first Texan selected to the Pro Bowl since 2002 and finished the year with 1,142 receiving yards and six touchdowns. QB David Carr set career highs in yards (3,531), touchdowns (16) and completions (285). RB Domanick Davis overcame a slow start to the season to rush for a career-high 1,188 yards and a team record 13 rushing touchdowns. The Texans improved from 2002 and 2003 in 10 offensive categories.

Defensively, the Texans ended on a high note keeping opponents out of the end zone for 13 consecutive quarters in the months of December and January – an NFL season high. The unit started three rookies, CB Dunta Robinson, LB Jason Babin and SS Glenn Earl. Babin finished second to Kailee Wong (5.5) with four sacks. Robinson led the team with six interceptions, three forced fumbles, three sacks and finished second in Defensive Rookie of the Year voting.

K Kris Brown has yet to miss an extra point since joining the Texans in 2002 and made 34 point after attempts and 17 field goals in 2004. P Chad Stanley punted 73 times for a 41.2 yard average.

SUMMARY

The Houston Texans fell to 0-1 after losing at home to San Diego, breaking an opening-game winning streak that dated back to 2002. The Texans led early thanks to a 37-yard field goal by K Kris Brown. San Diego answered with a 48-yarder from K Nate Kaeding, and Brown put Houston back in front 6-3 with a 20-yard kick. The Chargers took their first lead at 10-6 on a one-yard touchdown run by RB LaDainian Tomlinson. Houston RB Domanick Davis gave his team the lead at halftime with a two-yard scoring run to make it 13-10. After another Chargers touchdown in the third quarter, Davis scored from one yard out to put Houston up 17-14, but San Diego scored the last 10 points to pull out the 27-20 win. SUMMARY

The Texans (1-2) picked up their first win of the season in Arrowhead Stadium after K Kris Brown booted a 49-yard game-winning field goal with just seconds remaining. The Chiefs drew first blood when QB Trent Green hit TE Tony Gonzalez with a 14-yard touchdown pass for an early 7-0 lead. Brown got Houston on the board with a 28-yarder to put the score at 7-3, capping a drive that started at the Houston two-yard line. Brown nailed a 49-yarder to trim the lead to a point at halftime. Green hit WR Chris Horn on a six-yard scoring pass to extend the Chiefs lead to 14-6. CB Marcus Coleman came up with a big defensive play in the third quarter, picking off Green in the end zone and racing 102 yards for the longest touchdown in team history. A two-point conversion from RB Jonathan Wells tied the game at 14. Both teams traded fourth-quarter touchdowns to make it 21-21 late in the game. Brown came in to kick the 49-yard game winner, the eighth of his career, to seal the Texans road win, with two seconds left.

K Kris Brown got Houston started with a 46-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. After an Oakland field goal tied it at three after one quarter, the teams traded two touchdowns apiece to go into halftime at 17-17. Collins fumbled a snap on the next drive and Texans LB Jay Foreman pounced on the loose ball. QB David Carr found WR Andre Johnson soon after for a 15-yard touchdown pass to extend the Texans lead to 27-17. SUMMARY

Looking to win three consecutive games for the first time, the Texans (4-4) fell flat in Denver as the Broncos cruised to a 31-13 win at INVESCO Field. Denver scored first when QB Jake Plummer found TE Jeb Putzier on a 34-yard scoring strike to give Denver a 7-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. After a Houston punt, Denver K Jason Elam booted a 52-yard field goal to extend the Broncos lead to 10-0. Houston RB Domanick Davis scored from one yard out following a blocked punt to make the score 10-7. The Broncos answered with a 40-yard bomb from Plummer to WR Ashley Lelie to give Denver a 17-7 lead with under two minutes remaining in the first half. After another Texans punt Plummer engineered a textbook two-minute drill, ultimately finding WR Rod Smith for a 13-yard touchdown to give Denver a commanding 24-7 lead at halftime. After another touchdown made it 31-7, Davis punched in his second touchdown of the day which, after a failed two-point conversion attempt, made it 31-13.

SUMMARY

The Indianapolis Colts defeated the Houston Texans (5-8) 23-14 at Reliant Stadium. Following an interception on Houston's opening drive, Colts QB Peyton Manning found WR Marvin Harrison on Indianapolis' first possession for a three-yard touchdown to give Indy a 7-0 lead. On Indy's next drive, Manning fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Reggie Wayne to give the Colts a two-touchdown lead. Texans QB David Carr found RB Jonathan Wells for a three-yard touchdown pass to cut the Colts lead 14-7 going into halftime. Colts K Mike Vanderjagt made a 30-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half to extend the lead to 17-7. The Texans answered with a 15-yard touchdown run by RB Domanick Davis to cut the lead 17-14. A pair of field goals by Vanderjagt in the fourth quarter, from 43 and 44 yards, put the game out of reach. CB Dunta Robinson had a strong game on defense, sacking Manning twice and forcing a fumble. Davis finished the day with 128 yards rushing yards and 201 total yards, a new personal best. It was Davis' second 100-yard rushing game in 2004 and sixth of his career.

SUMMARY

The Texans (6-8) rode their best defensive effort of their brief history en route to a 24-5 win over the Bears at Soldier Field. The Texans' defense forced four turnovers and scored a defensive touchdown. Texans RB Domanick Davis rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown as Houston weathered its coldest game in team annals (12 degrees).After a scoreless first quarter, Texans QB David Carr sailed a pass over WR Corey Bradford's shoulder for a 37-yard touchdown strike to give Houston a 7-0 lead. The Bears got on the board in the third quarter when their defense pressured Carr and he was forced to throw out of the end zone. His incomplete pass was tagged as an intentional grounding penalty giving the Bears a safety. A fourth-quarter field goal made it 7-5. Houston answered swiftly with a 20-yard field goal from K Kris Brown to extend the lead to 10-5. Davis scored from 11 yards out to give the Texans a 17-5 lead. With under five minutes remaining, Texans LB Charlie Anderson scooped up a Bears fumble and sprinted 60 yards to paydirt, sealing the 24-5 win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (7-8) defeated the Jaguars for the second time this season and finished division play with a 4-2 mark and sweep over both the Jaguars and Titans. Houston's 21-0 win marked the first shutout in team history. The offense piled up 333 yards and held the ball for nearly 40 minutes, while the defense held Jacksonville to a mere 126 total yards and forced three turnovers. Houston got the ball first and wasted no time marching down the field before RB Domanick Davis plunged into the end zone from one yard out to give Houston a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, QB David Carr found WR Andre Johnson in the left corner of the end zone from 10 yards out and the Texans took a 14-0 lead. LB Kailee Wong intercepted Jacksonville QB David Garrard in the third quarter, but the offense couldn't convert the turnover into points. In the fourth quarter, Texans CB Dunta Robinson stripped the ball out of WR Troy Edwards hands. The ball sailed right into the hands of Texans LB Antwan Peek, who rumbled 66 yards for his first career touchdown extending the Texans lead 21-0. On the Jaguars next possession, Texans LB Jamie Sharper nailed Toefield and LB Jason Babin recovered the fumbled ball to give the Texans offense the opportunity to run out the clock for a shutout.

SUMMARY

The Texans (7-9) wrapped up their 2004 season on a sour note, falling to the Browns 22-14 at Reliant Stadium. Browns K Phil Dawson provided 15 of his team's points with five FGs. RB Domanick Davis rushed for 103 yards and one score, but the Texans had just 102 net passing yards as the Browns sacked QB David Carr six times. After Dawson's 45-yard field goal gave Cleveland a 3-0 lead early, the Texans answered on the ensuing drive when QB David Carr hit RB Jonathan Wells on a six-yard touchdown strike to put Houston up 7-3. Cleveland then proceeded to reel off 19 consecutive points over the next three quarters to go up 22-7. The Texans weren't ready to throw in the towel as Davis punched in a one-yard touchdown run to bring the score to 22-14. Texans K Kris Brown attempted an onside kick to give Houston one last scoring shot but Cleveland recovered the ball to secure a 22-14 win in the last week of the season.

2003 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

Youth carried Texans in second season

The Texans capped off an improved season from their inaugural debut with a 5-11 record, overcoming the NFL's most difficult schedule (.570 opponent winning percentage).

The Texans started the season with a 21-20 upset after breaking Miami's 11-game winning streak in season openers. They played three of the four division winners in the AFC and beat NFC South winner Carolina Panthers (14-10). In the Texans' last seven games at Reliant Stadium, the outcome was dependent on the final drive of the game with the Texans winning three and their opponents winning four.

Rookie RB Domanick Davis and rookie WR Andre Johnson opened eyes around the league in 2003, combining for seven Rookie of the Week honors. Davis became the first Texans player to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark (1,031 yards). Johnson fell 24 yards short of 1,000 (976 yards) on 66 receptions. With David Carr completing this potent offensive trio, Texans fans are very optimistic about the near future.

Even though the defense was riddled by injuries all year, with nine of the Texans' 17 players on the reserved/injured list coming on the defensive side of the ball, every member did their part to keep games close. In fact, the games were so close that the last seven games played in Reliant Stadium came down to the last possession. LB Jamie Sharper led the defense with a league-leading 195 tackles on the season, starting every game of the year. Despite the Texans' injury-plagued season marked by close losses, the Texans move into the off-season with a solid and young foundation to build on for next year.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-7) showed impressive grit in a 17-13 home victory over Atlanta. The Falcons found the end zone first at the beginning of the second quarter when RB T.J. Duckett punched in a one-yard touchdown to give Atlanta a 7-0 lead. Houston answered with a 40-yard Kris Brown field goal to cut the lead to 7-3. QB David Carr took over for an injured Tony Banks in the second half and immediately led a scoring drive which was capped when RB Domanick Davis ran in a seven-yard touchdown to give Houston a 10-7 lead. CB Marcus Coleman intercepted an Atlanta pass on the next possession to set up a two-yard touchdown run by Davis that upped the lead to 17-7. Atlanta K Jay Feely split the uprights from 45 yards out to make it 17-10 in the fourth quarter. Feely hit another soon after, this time from 42 yards out, and cut the score to 17-13. Feely attempted an onside kick to give the Falcons one last chance for a win, but Coleman recovered and the Texans were able to run the clock down to notch their third home victory of the season. Davis ran for 101 yards on 24 carries in the game, his fourth 100-yard game of the year.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-8) were handed the first - and only - shutout in team history in a 27-0 loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars at ALLTEL Stadium. QB Byron Leftwich hit WR Jimmy Smith in the end zone to give the Jaguars a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. In the next seven possessions, each team could manage just one first down. With less than seven minutes remaining in the half, Jacksonville K Seth Marler split the uprights from 35 yards out to extend the lead to 10-0. Jacksonville got the ball back with under two minutes remaining and RB Fred Taylor scored on a two-yard run, sending Houston to the locker room down 17 points. Houston forced a punt and saw a 41-yard Marler field goal attempt sail wide right on Jacksonville's first two possessions of the second half. The Texans were forced to punt and Taylor scampered for a season-long 62-yard run before RB Brandon Toefield bulled in from one yard out to increase the Jaguars lead 24-0. Marler lit up the scoreboard one more time when he hit a 28-yard field goal to cap a 27-0 Jacksonville win. Houston managed just 124 yards of offense in the game and turned the ball over three times.

SUMMARY

The Texans (5-9) lost their final road game of the season to Tampa Bay 16-3 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs wasted no time getting an early edge over Houston when they drove 53 yards for a touchdown on their first possession. Bucs RB Thomas Jones plunged in from 18 yards out to give the Bucs a 7-0 lead. K Martin Gramatica came on in the second quarter and split the uprights from 36 yards out to extend Tampa Bay's lead to 10-0. The Bucs were able to get one more Gramatica field goal before the end of the first half, this time from 23 yards out, to make it 13-0 at halftime. Houston's defense forced a Tampa Bay punt to start the second half and the Texans offense was able to finally get on the board. K Kris Brown hit a 38-yard field goal to put the score at 13-3. Tampa Bay responded quickly when Johnson connected with Lee for 72 yards to put the Bucs at the Houston 8. Houston's defense forced a 26-yard Gramatica field goal to extend the lead to 16-3. The fourth quarter passed without a score by either side and Tampa walked out with the win. Tampa's defense held the Texans to a mere 107 yards of total offense, including just 42 net passing yards on the day, while the Buccaneers offense held onto the ball for nearly two thirds of the game.

2002 SEASON-IN-REVIEW

TEXANS WRAP UP FIRST SEASON WITH 4-12 RECORD

Texans end Inaugural Season tied for second-most wins by an NFL expansion team.

The Houston Texans ended their first season with a 4-12 record, tying the mark for second-most wins by an expansion team (Jacksonville 1995). Two of those wins were on the road (Jacksonville, Pittsburgh) and two were against eventual playoff teams (Steelers, Giants). Overall, the Texans played 11 games against teams with a record of .500 or better and played eight games against playoff teams.

The Texans proved to be a tough opponent, thanks in large part to a veteran-laden defense that ranked 16th in the NFL in total defense and produced two Pro Bowl starters in cornerback Aaron Glenn and defensive end Gary Walker. In addition, five defensive players set new career-highs in tackles.

"We've got more veterans on defense, more guys that have played and understand the fine line between a winning performance and a losing performance," said head coach Dom Capers. "You'd like to win more games, but having been through this process before, I understand it's a step-by-step process. I'm proud of the way this team has hung together. I think we have a good core to build from and move forward.

One of those players was first round draft choice David Carr, who was one of three quarterbacks in the NFL this season to take every snap. "I have learned a lot," said Carr. "I had a lot of fun – I always have fun playing ball. I wouldn't change anything that happened this year. It is all going to be positive when I look back at it later in my career because I am going to learn from every experience that I had, especially when I have a chance to go back and watch all these games again."

SUMMARY

The Houston Texans won the first game in franchise history with a 19-10 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Reliant Stadium. It marked the first time that an expansion club won their opening game since Minnesota defeated Chicago 37-13 in 1961. The Texans also became the first expansion team since New Orleans in 1967 to score on their first possession when QB David Carr hit TE Billy Miller on a 19-yard passing strike. Early in the second quarter, Texans LB Kailee Wong sacked Dallas QB Quincy Carter for an eight-yard loss, recording the first sack in Texans history. On the next play, CB Aaron Glenn intercepted Carter's pass at the Dallas 18 yard-line for the first interception in the Texans annals and 25th of Glenn's nine-year career. The turnover set up a K Kris Brown 42-yard field goal to put Houston ahead 10-0. A 33-yard field goal put Dallas on the board and made it 10-3 at halftime. Dallas evened the score at 10 in the third quarter. The Texans answered in the fourth when Carr lofted a pass to WR Corey Bradford who hauled it in for a 65-yard touchdown to put Houston ahead 17-10. DT Seth Payne sacked Carter in the end zone for a safety, sealing the Texans' historic win.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-1) suffered the first loss in franchise history, falling to the San Diego Chargers 24-3 in Qualcomm Stadium. The Chargers took an early lead when QB Drew Brees hit WR Curtis Conway for a 35-yard TD pass on their first possession. After Chargers LB Junior Seau returned an interception to the Texans 6, Brees and Conway connected again three plays later on a three-yard reverse to give San Diego a 14-0 lead. Houston got on the board prior to halftime with a 45-yard K Kris Brown field goal. With three seconds remaining in the half, San Diego padded their lead as K Steve Christie nailed a 36-yard field goal to put the score at 17-3. Both the Chargers and Texans defensive units held strong to keep the third quarter scoreless. Early in the fourth quarter, San Diego put the game away when LB Ben Leber got past Texans TE Billy Miller to sack Carr in the end zone, causing the ball to come loose. Chargers DE Raylee Johnson recovered the fumble and San Diego took a three-touchdown lead that they would hold onto for the remainder of the game. Carr showed great toughness as he was sacked nine times by a relentless Charger defense but finished the game.

SUMMARY

The Texans (1-2) fell to the Indianapolis Colts 23-3 at Reliant Stadium. The game marked the first time in over thirty years that a Houston team took the field in an outdoor venue, with the retractable roof kept open. The last occasion was on December 16, 1967, when the Houston Oilers defeated the San Diego Chargers 24-17 in Rice Stadium. Indianapolis scored on its second drive when QB Peyton Manning tossed a 42-yard touchdown strike to WR Qadry Ismail. On the following Colts possession, LB Jay Foreman forced a fumble, which was recovered by CB Marcus Coleman. A Colts interception, though, set up a 26-yard K Mike Vanderjagt field goal to extend the lead to 10-0. Vanderjagt hit a 39-yarder to make it 13-0 at halftime. The Texans were able to put some points on the board in the third quarter thanks to a 24-yard K Kris Brown field goal to put the score at 13-3. Indianapolis added 10 fourth-quarter points to come away with the 20-point win. DT Gary Walker recovered a fumble in the third quarter, while rookie RB Jonathan Wells rushed for 93 yards and added 14 receiving.

The Texans came out of the gate with an 81-yard strike from QB David Carr to WR Corey Bradford to set up a K Kris Brown 26-yarder. The Bills tied it with a field goal, and in the second quarter Carr hit WR Jabar Gaffney for a 26-yard score to put Houston up 10-3. Carr ran 17 yards into the end zone on the next drive to make it 17-3. Buffalo answered with a touchdown to cut the lead to 17-10 at halftime. Another Bills touchdown on the opening drive of the second half tied the game. Houston regained the lead in the fourth quarter when Carr handed the ball to RB James Allen, who hit TE Billy Miller for a five-yard score to make it 24-17, but the Bills scored the game's last 14 points en route to the victory.

But Browns WR André Davis raced 95 yards to the end zone on the kickoff return to take a 17-14 lead. The Texans tied it on a 47-yard field goal from K Kris Brown. SUMMARY

The Texans (4-12) concluded their inaugural season with a 13-3 loss to the AFC South champion Tennessee Titans. On Tennessee's first drive, Titans QB Steve McNair hit WR Justin McCareins on a 36-yard pass that set up a 28-yard K Joe Nedney field goal. The Titans blocked a 19-yard field goal attempt by K Kris Brown, and then blocked a punt by Chad Stanley to set up another Nedney field goal from 26 yards out to give Tennessee a 6-0 lead. On Houston's second possession of the second half, the offense still couldn't punch the ball in the end zone, settling for a 31-yard Brown field goal. But Titans DT Albert Haynesworth was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct for trying to vault off a teammate to block the kick and the Texans were awarded the ball 1st and goal at the Titans 7. The Texans again went backwards and Brown came in again to nail a 42-yarder, putting the score at 6-3 in favor of the Titans. With just over eight minutes remaining in the game, McNair hit Tennessee WR Drew Bennett for a 53-yard pass and first down to set up a four-yard Eddie George touchdown run that sealed the 13-3 Titans victory.

RELIANT STADIUM

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first domed stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

Reliant Stadium, the first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in their first home preseason game. Houston's regular-season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys before a raucous crowd, unveiling a game day atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

Counting preseason contests, the Texans have played 70 consecutive sellouts and set a team record in 2004 with 565,192 fans during the regular season, an average of 70,649 per game. The Texans' largest crowd to date was 70,838 in their showdown with the Chicago Bears in December 2008, the largest non-Super Bowl crowd in the city's history.

Speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004 as Reliant Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pregame and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

Reliant Stadium also has played host to numerous college football games, including three Houston Bowls and the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games. The stadium also has played host to the 2006, 2007 and 2008 Texas Bowls and the 2007 East-West Shrine Game. The stadium has also become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. National Soccer Team hosted Mexico in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. In 2005, Reliant Stadium hosted the championship matches of the Mexican League's InterLiga qualification competition. Reliant Stadium hosted another U.S.-Mexico match in 2007 and a Mexico-Belize World Cup qualifier in 2008.

The Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2009, boasting such acts as Keith Urban, Rascal Flatts, Jonas Brothers, ZZ Top, Pat Green, Brooks & Dunn and Taylor Swift. Reliant Stadium has also played host to The Rolling Stones, Metallica, Kenny Chesney, Disney on Ice and the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on Reliant Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,200 club seats and 187 suites.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric, and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones.

The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass-playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays, then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which makes it the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions enabling Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

Reliant Stadium also boasts a larger-than-life scoreboard. Following the trend that was started with the Astrodome scoreboard, Reliant Stadium houses two of the largest video boards in the league. Both include out-of-town scores, down and distance, the game clock and a host of other traits.

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is the largest in the league. The players also can take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Houston's working media has its own offices and library on the ground level of Reliant Stadium. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak conducts his weekly press conference in the Texans Team Auditorium. His post-game press conferences are held in one of the team's two media auditoriums on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Methodist Training Center features three grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Texans also have an indoor practice field outfitted with FieldTurf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

TRANSPORTATION & PARKING INFORMATION

Accessible Parking

Parking spaces are available for guests with disabilities on the north and south sides of Reliant Stadium. Passes for these spaces should be pre-purchased, subject to availability, by calling 866.GOTEXANS. In addition to this parking pass from the Texans, fans must have a Texas Disabled Person Parking Placard or Plate. The person possessing the Texas Disabled Person Parking Placard or Plate must also be in the vehicle to park in a space reserved for guests with disabilities. These items will be monitored and strictly enforced, so please have both placards visibly displayed in your car while on Reliant Park property. Violation of these regulations may result in forfeiture of the parking pass. Please note that specific parking spaces cannot be reserved.

For limited mobility guests, drop-off and pick-up points have been designated on the southeast (Amegy Bank Gate) and northeast (Coca-Cola Gate) corners of Reliant Stadium. Drivers may access these locations off of Kirby on to Westridge or Reliant Parkway (McNee), respectively, by alerting the parking attendant that they are dropping off or picking up a guest. Once the guest is dropped off, drivers should leave and proceed to the parking lot for which they have a parking pass.

Bus Parking

All buses (passenger charter and tailgating) will require two pre-purchased parking passes to park at Reliant Park on Houston Texans gamedays. Passenger buses may drop off on the north side of Reliant Stadium as directed and are encouraged to purchase pre-purchased parking passes in the Red parking area (subject to availability). Tailgating buses will require two pre-paid parking passes for any Miller Lite parking lot at Reliant Park. Parking passes are subject to availability and may be purchased by calling the Houston Texans at 866.GOTEXANS.
Recreational vehicles (RV) parking is available at Reliant Park for Texans games. Guests must pre-purchase a minimum of two parking passes for an RV, depending on its size and the number of spaces it will fill when parked. Water lines and grey water drainage are not available. RVs will be required to park in designated RV areas in each lot.

Emergency Call Boxes

For the safety and comfort of our fans, there are emergency call boxes in all Miller Lite parking lots. The red boxes marked "Emergency" are located throughout each parking lot and ring directly to stadium security. Please use the emergency call boxes only in the case of a serious emergency.

Limousine Service

Limousines may drop off and pick up in the Teal Lot near the north pedestrian bridge over Kirby Drive to the stadium. Please note that limousines will not be permitted to park on-site unless they have a pre-paid parking pass. Without a pre-paid parking pass, they may stop only to drop off and pick up their passengers.

METRORail

Houston's light rail system serves Reliant Stadium and we encourage fans to use this option for Texans games. Trains run every 12 minutes and the cost of riding the train is only $1.25 each way. All trains are accessible and a shuttle will be available to transport disabled guests needing additional assistance from the Fannin light rail stop to a drop-off point near the Coca-Cola Gate. For complete information on schedules, parking areas and buying tickets, please visit www.ridemetro.org.

Motorcycle Parking

Every motorcycle must have a parking pass and must park in a single parking space. Multiple motorcycles may not be parked in the same spot.

Parking Code of Conduct

The Miller Lite parking lots at Reliant Park are there for your convenience and enjoyment. The Texans not only allow tailgating in the Miller Lite parking lots, we encourage it!

Every effort is made to create a fan-friendly environment that is safe for all to enjoy. Our fans play a large role in this. In order to maintain a safe and fun environment, the Texans ask that all fans follow directions given by the Reliant Park staff. They are there to assist you and make parking safe and fun for everyone.

Those who do not adhere to the parking guidelines and/or participate in activities that create an unsafe environment will be held responsible. Parking passes, like your tickets, can be traced back to your season ticket account. Unacceptable conduct in the Miller Lite parking lots falls under the Houston Texans Two Strike Program located in the "Fan Code of Conduct" section on page 41 of the Texans' Fan Guide.

Miller Lite Parking Lots

All Miller Lite parking lots at Reliant Park (except for the Platinum Lot) open four hours prior to kickoff. All parking at Reliant Park is pre-sold. Please refer to the Parking Passes section below for information on purchasing parking passes. There is no cash parking on-site on Houston Texans gamedays.

If you purchase season parking passes, they will be mailed to you with your season tickets. Please note that parking passes will not be available for purchase on gameday and must be purchased in advance. If you are interested in pre-purchasing parking passes, please call the Houston Texans Ticket Office at 866.GOTEXANS or Ticketmaster at 713.629.3700. You may also visit Ticketmaster.com.

LA TREMENDA 1010 AM

KLAT La Tremenda 1010 AM is proud to be the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the eighth consecutive season. Representing 42% percent of Houston's population, the Hispanic community offers a huge fan base for the Texans. Since the team's inception, the Texans have realized the power of the Hispanic community in Houston and recognized how many long-time fans they stood to gain. It's no wonder they turned to La Tremenda 1010 AM to reach Hispanic fans with their broadcast. So get your team spirit pumping, strap on the pads and ask yourself: Are you ready for some futbol Americano?

La Tremenda 1010 AM is owned and operated by Univision Communications Inc., the premier Spanish-language media company in the United States, which currently owns and/or operates 53 radio stations in 17 of the top 25 U.S. Hispanic markets and two stations in Puerto Rico. In Houston, they also broadcast KLTN-FM (Estéreo Latino 102.9 FM), KOVE-FM (Recuerdo 106.5FM), KQBU-FM (Que Buena 93.3 FM), KAMA-FM (104.9 FM Tu Musica).

An avid sports fan, Rolando Becerra will continue to serve as the play-by-play voice for the Texans on La Tremenda 1010 AM. Becerra is the only Hispanic commentator to have done play-by-play broadcasts for five major sports teams: the Houston Astros (1986-1992), the Houston Rockets (1988-1993), the Houston Oilers (1995-1997), the Houston Aeros (1999-2000) and the Texans (2002-09).

Becerra, originally from Cuba, began his radio career in Miami in 1973. He's been a Houston resident and radio constant for more than 30 years. You can also catch him on La Tremenda 1010 AM as host of "Hoy Con Rolando Becerra," which airs Monday through Friday from 6-9 a.m. Becerra has been married to his wife, Jenny, for over 40 years and they are parents to four children: Barbra, Jason, Jaron and Megan.

Enrique Vasquez returns to handle color commentary duties for Texans broadcasts on La Tremenda 1010 AM. Vasquez came back to the Houston football scene after a two-year run doing color commentary for the Dallas Cowboys, where he also did play-by-play in the late 1990s. He has also done sports broadcasting for Fox Sports, covering everything from basketball to the Olympics to Super Bowls. Some Texans fans and La Tremenda 1010 AM listeners may remember Vasquez as one of the Spanish broadcast voices for the Houston Oilers from 1992 to 1995. Vasquez also writes a popular weekly column for the Spanish section of HoustonTexans.com.

TEXANS COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Hurricane Ike Relief

During the aftermath of Hurricane Ike, the Texans rolled up their sleeves. Texans owner Bob McNair and his wife Janice worked side-by-side with TORO, players, cheerleaders and staff to distribute, sort and box food and personal hygiene items at the Houston Food Bank and an area P.O.D. (point of distribution) site for individuals devastated by the hurricane. Through the Texans Helping Texans campaign we were able to raise over $2.4 million dollars in support of the United Way of Greater Houston and the Gulf Coast Ike Relief Fund in less than two weeks after the storm.

Houston Texans YMCA

The Houston Texans and the Greater Houston YMCA have partnered to open a new YMCA facility in the Palm Center community of Third Ward. The facility, located at the corner of Griggs Rd. and Martin Luther King Blvd., will replace the old South Central YMCA. The partnership is the first of its kind, making the new Houston Texans YMCA the first YMCA facility in the country to be named after a professional sports team. The partnership will combine two powerful and influential names to benefit the Greater Third Ward community by providing programs including health and wellness, child care and recreational and youth development. The new facility is the first and most visible result of a larger partnership between the Texans and the YMCA. In keeping with the Texans' stated goal of being the most community-connected professional sports franchise in the world, the team selected the YMCA as its primary strategic community partner and will work with YMCA staff to develop programming to benefit the children and the community served by the facility. A groundbreaking was held for the new facility on Thursday, December 11, 2008. The facility is slated to open in fall 2010.

!Viva Houston Texans!

One of the goals of the Houston Texans, along with its owner Bob McNair, is to become the most community-connected sports franchise in the world. In order to achieve this goal, the Texans have created a solid Hispanic outreach platform to connect with the Hispanic community. This includes fundamental media and business relationships and a genuine connection with the fans.

The Texans have created many events and partnerships to achieve this mission, including Hispanic Heritage Day at a Texans home game and a Hispanic Media Day. In addition, the Texans run many grassroots events and youth football clinics in the Hispanic community and have established a strengthening partnership with local Hispanic Chambers of Commerce. The Texans have also partnered with Univision on their Cinco de Mayo and Fiestas Patrias events.

Since their inception, the Texans have featured all games on Spanish radio along with offering a weekly show on Univision Radio's LA TREMENDA 1010 AM and Texans network affiliates. The Texans have also partnered with KXLN Univision 45 Television for a weekly ¡Punto Extra! Texans segment every Friday on the 10 p.m. newscast throughout the season. Along with creating partnerships with Spanish television and radio outlets, the Texans have also established essential relationships with Spanish print outlets. The Texans are also proud to feature the first Hispanic Advisory Board in professional sports. The group is spearheaded by Chair Carlos Lara along with 13 superior Hispanic community leaders. These community leaders serve as visionary consultants for the Texans Hispanic Outreach initiatives and are vital liaisons to the Hispanic community. As a result, the Texans have been recognized by former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as having one of the finest Hispanic outreach programs in professional sports. In 2008, the Houston Texans participated in 25 events within the Hispanic community including: Tejano Center for Community Concerns Spring Festival, Cumara de Empresarios Latinos de Houston (CELH) Golf Tournament, Houston Puerto Rican Society Festival, Univision Cinco de Mayo, Cumara de Empresarios Latinos de Houston (CELH) Business Expo , Houston Texans Hispanic and Non-Traditional Media Day, Univision Fiestas Patrias, Houston Texans Hispanic Heritage Day, Houston Texans Mexico Outreach Trip and Regional Outreach Tour.
